By Telegraph to the Tribune. Germany and Spain at Loggerheads - A Bishop Defies the German Emperor - The Virginia Question in Havana.

LONDON, Dec. 3. SERIOUS TROUBLE between Germany and Spain is threatened on account of the seizure of German vessels at the Philippine Islands.

ADMIRAL LUDWIG refuses to comply with the demand of the German Government for his resignation.

OCEAN COLLECTORS Admiral Jervis has proposed to the French Assembly the establishment of an International Tribunal for the purpose of investigating collisions between vessels on the high seas.

THE VIRGINIA. Assurances are received from the Spanish Government that the authorities in Cuba will make no opposition to the settlement of the Virginia affair.

There are rumors, not credited though, of further complications with Spain.

The excitement among the citizens of Havana is subsiding, and tranquillity is returning. The newspaper discussion of the situation is now moderate and reasonable in tone.

A Family Missing. A woman and two children, formerly from up the river, but of late living in Boston, were missing some friends in Boston.

THE House is neatly situated - being near the International Station, Landing, and convenient to the leading public and business houses of the Bay and Harbor, and is especially adapted for a first class Hotel, a few foreign and local Boarders can now obtain board with comfort.
