

- Hague Tribunal (Permanent Court of Arbitration), proposed Imperial resolution to support arbitration before resort to war, 246-47
- arbitration board for boundary waters disputes, 374, 379
  - North Atlantic fisheries controversy: special agreement on terms of reference, 449-59 (main entry under arbitration); nominations for tribunal and timing of appointments, 457-59; joint preparation of British case, and choice of British agent, 459-60, 460n, attendance by US and UK officials, 524, 529, 802; claims against US, 460; award of tribunal, 461, 461n, 463
  - procedures for implementing award and recommendations, 461-81 (main entry under fisheries regulations); reconvening of Hague Tribunal avoided, 464-65, 468-70; draft agreement on future procedures for carrying out award, 471-72; morally binding nature of recommendations accompanying award, 473-74; time limit for US objections to new fisheries regulations, 478; discussion of procedures for carrying out award and recommendations, 478-79; recommendation as to bays, 480; agreement, 481
  - pecuniary claims, 799n, 803-4
  - Panama Canal tolls, 846
- Haig, Field Marshal Sir Douglas, Commander-in-Chief of Expeditionary Forces (1915-19), 166, 195, 201-2
- Haldane, Richard B., War Secretary (UK), Dec. 5, 1905-June 10, 1912, at 1909 Imperial Defence Conference, 227-31, 241
- Halifax, wartime needs, 59, 61, 73, 93, 109, 117, 145; naval dockyards, 242, 247, 247n; naval shipbuilding industry proposed for, 271; Naval College, 280; Chamber of Commerce, 476; pelagic sealers, 548; steamship service to West Indies, 676n, 710, 713n
- Hamilton, Ont., 763
- Hamilton Inlet and River, 421, 425
- Hamlin, Charles S., 513
- Hanbury-Williams, Col. Sir J., 406, 406n
- Hankey, Sir Maurice P., 332, 332n, 357
- Hanna, W. J., Food Controller (q.v.), 175
- Harbin, 210
- Harcourt, Lewis, Colonial Secretary (UK), Nov. 7, 1910-May 27, 1915—for documents relating to period of incumbency see under desired subject headings, as follows: conduct of external relations, 6-22; the war, 37-73; Imperial relations, 247-86; attends 1911 Imperial Conference, 254-55; boundaries, 419-47; fisheries, 462-87; pelagic sealing, 540-90; immigration, 610-58; relations with Bolivia, 674-76; West Indies, 684-714; Denmark, 718-19; Japan, 733-49; Portugal, 752-53; US, reciprocity, 783-98; pecuniary claims, 810-18; naval vessels on the Great Lakes, 834-37; Panama Canal tolls, 840-48
- Hardinge of Penshurst, Baron, Viceroy of India, 1910-16; Permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 1906-10, 1916-20, possible representation of India at Imperial Conference, 302n; admission of Indians to Canada, 614, 631
- Harmon, Judson, Attorney General (US), 1895-97, 366-67
- Haro, Canal de, 403
- Harris, Arthur H., 69, 92-94
- Harris, Captain Charles I., 546-47
- Harris, Lloyd, War Mission, Washington, 29, 34; to London for peace discussions, 220
- Harrison, Benjamin, President of US, 1890-94, 365
- Hastings, Canadians at, 314
- Haulwen*, 110
- Havre, Le, 110
- Hawaiian claims, 812
- Hawk*, USS, 821
- Hay, John M., Secretary of State (US), 1898-1905, 385, 514, 826
- Hay Lake Channel, St. Marys River, 366, 388
- Hay-Pauncefote treaty, Nov. 18, 1901, Panama Canal tolls, guarantee of non-discrimination, 840, 843, 846; infraction by US apprehended, 840-44; British offer to submit issue to arbitration, 845; B.C. supports British position, 846; proposed abrogation of treaty, 846-47
- Hayashi, Count, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Japan, 635
- Hazen, John D., Minister of Marine and Fisheries; Minister of the Naval Service,