DIED.

At Little, Cape Canso, July 24th, Mr. Benjamin Kirby, in the 75th year of his age.—When the Master called he was ready. At Cape Canso, Nov. 11th, Mr. Peter Munro, in the 71st year of his age.—When his death was reported it was said of him, "he was a good man." At Northampton, Charlton Co., N. B., Nov. 11, 1875, aged 70 years, Mrs. Geo. Alexander, a native of the County Fermanagh, Ireland.—In early life she was converted to God and joined the Methodist Society in her native land. Came to N. B. in 1831, was one of the first members of the Methodist Society in Northampton, and until her death was a consistent and useful member. She was an earnest Christian worker, in her own home as well as in the class and prayer meeting, ever seeking to win those around her for Christ; and many to-day are living, who testify to her influence for good over them. She died as she had lived, with a complete trust in Christ. At the Methodist Parsonage, Sheffield, N. B., of Congestion of the Lungs, Alice Maud, aged 4 years and 2 months, youngest child of the Rev. Elias and Elizabeth Blackford. At Lakesville, S. Co., N. B., Dec. 22nd, 1875, very suddenly of disease of the heart, Sarah, aged 34 years, beloved wife of Mr. Isaac Davis.

Others have goodness and merit, but Clarke's New Method for the Piano Forte, by HUGH A. CLARKE, Professor of Music in the University of Pennsylvania, combines all the best features and presents all the latest developments in the technique of the Piano. All teachers should have it. Price $3.75.

When we reflect that a power of endurance can be imparted to the brain, and that weak minds have been restored to strength by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, we cannot but conclude that the subtle power is really ponderable matter. Persons who study hard should preserve their balance of power by using the Syrup.

THE NEW VOLUME OF THE "CANADIAN METHODIST MAGAZINE."

The following are a few specimens of recent public and private opinions of our excellent connoisseurs: "The Magazine is conducted with great spirit.—Montreal Witness." "This Magazine has already achieved a very remarkable success.—Toronto Mail." "The Canadian Methodist Magazine for January is a more than usually interesting and varied number.—Toronto Globe."

The Canadian Methodist Magazine, under the judicious and scholarly editorship of the Rev. W. H. Withrow, M.A., has been a conspicuous success from the first. It takes no contracted view, and is catholic and genial in its opinions. While it is sufficiently solid it is not heavy—that via media discovered by so few Magazine publishers.—London Advertiser.

This is one of the very best and cheapest Magazines published on this continent, being only about one half the price of American Magazines of similar character.—St. Catherine's Times.

We heartily recommend this Magazine to our readers as one that should be in every household, it is worth twice its cost to any person. Try it for a year or six months, and you will not regret doing so.—Brampton Connoisseur.

The Rev. A. Andrew writes: "Our people are exceedingly well pleased with the Magazine. If only 'Hard Times' did not hold a sceptre here, we could have a fine list for the New Year. I will do what I can for both it and the Banner."

An esteemed brother from Nova Scotia writes: "I am proud beyond expression of the Magazine."

Another brother from the East writes: "Each number seems an improvement on its predecessor."

The general opinion is that "for its size and excellence, this is the cheapest Magazine extant."

We confidently ask all its friends, ministerial and lay, to renew their subscriptions promptly, and to aid in increasing the circulation of our connection monthly. A strong effort is especially necessary at the present crisis to prevent the prevailing monetary stringency from restricting its influence and usefulness. Marked improvements will be made during the coming year.

IT PAYS! IT PAYS!

What Pays? IT PAYS every Manufacturer, Merchant, Mechanic, Inventor, Farmer, or Professional man, to keep informed on all the improvements and discoveries of the age.

IT PAYS the head of every family to introduce into his household a newspaper that is instructive, one that affords a taste for investigation, and promotes thought and encourages discussion among the members.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN which has been published weekly for the last thirty years, does this to an extent beyond that of any other publication in fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States, devoted to Manufacturers, Mechanics, Inventors and New Discoveries in the Arts of Science.

Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical and Scientific Progress of the World. Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of New Inventions, New Implements, New Process, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Recipes, Suggestions and Advice, by Practical Writers, for Workmen and Employers, in all the various arts, forming a complete repository of New Inventions and Discoveries; containing a weekly record not only of the progress of the Industrial Arts in our own country, but also of all New Discoveries and Inventions in every branch of Engineering, Mechanics, and Science abroad.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has been the foremost of all industrial publications for the past Thirty Years. It is the oldest, largest, cheapest, and best weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and Industrial Progress, published in the World.

The practical receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price. And for the shop and home will save many times the cost of subscription. Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, Engineers, Inventors, Manufacturers, Chemists, Lovers of Science and People of all Professions, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN useful to them. It should have a place in every Family, Library, Study, Office, and Counting Room in every Reading Room, College and School. A new volume commences January 1st, 1876.
