

DR. CYRENUS BENJAMIN HALL

Resided at Fort Erie. He received his medical education at Fairfield Medical College, where he attended two courses of lectures. He passed the Upper Canada Medical Board, April, 1836, and commenced practice at Fort Erie. Subsequently he practised at St. Thomas, and had a large amount of professional work. He held the position of Coroner for the Niagara District, and was Assistant-Surgeon to the Queen's Light Infantry during the rebellion of 1837. Dr. Hall settled in Toronto in the latter part of the sixties. The following (date lost) is taken from the London Free Press: "We notice in the advertisements in our columns this morning, the appointment of C. B. Hall, M.D., late of the county of Elgin, as Associate Lecturer in the chair of Surgery in the Medical Department of Victoria College, Toronto. It will, no doubt, give sincere pleasure to his numerous friends in this section of the country, and his services cannot fail to add to the reputation of the College, after an ample experience of nearly twenty years."

He received the degree of M.D., Geneva University, Switzerland, 1846. Dr. Hall was a very active member of various medical associations, and a well-known practitioner in Toronto. He died, April 1, 1880.

DR. WILLIAM HALLOWELL,

Was born at Quebec, April 9, 1814. At the age of seven he was sent to Scotland to be educated. Pursued his medical studies in Edinburgh, France and Germany, and received the degree of L.R.C.S. Edinburgh, 1834, and M.D. from the University, Giesen, Germany, 1836. At the age of twenty-four he returned to Canada, and obtained the provincial license of Lower Canada. He then received a commission to the 83rd Regiment of the line, as assistant-surgeon, and was in several engagements during the rebellion in Lower Canada, in 1837. He afterwards retired from the service, and for many years practised his profession successfully in Kingston, Canada. He then removed to Toronto, where he practised till the time of his death. He was one of the promoters of Trinity Medical School,