they are arranged upon smooth linings and are finished at the wrists with cuffs that flare slightly at the back of the arm. The back with cuffs that flare slightly at the back of the arm. The back edges of the cuffs are loose, and the back and lower edges of each are decorated with a drooping frill of point de Gène l c. At the neck is a standing collar that closes at the left side; it is covered with bias folds of plain silk, and a jabot-frill of point de Gène lace is arranged at the center of the chemisette.

Contrasts of shades and materials are best adapted to this picturesque mode, but, if desired, a single texture may be used through-out. Flowered silks and those showing conventional designs in colors upon a black ground will associate effectively with plain silk; and frills of embroidered or plain chiffon or lace may be added for garniture. Any preferred combination of wool goods in harmonizing shades will make up attractively in this way, and a third mater-ial, which may be velvet. India silk or crêpe de Chine, may be in-

Wo have pattern No. 4406 in thirteen sizes for ladies from twenty-eight to forty-six inches, bust measure. To make the basque for a lady of medium size, requires two yards and seven-eighths of plain and three yards and three-fourths of brocaded silk each twenty inches wide. Of one material, it needs five yards and three-fourths twenty-two inches wide, or two yards and seven-eighths forty-four inches wide, or two yards and a-half fifty inches wide. Price of pattern, 1s. 3d. or 30 cents.

LADIES' BASQUE. (For Illustrations see Page $31.)

a long the state

No. 4428 .- Lizardgreen Bengaline, chamois, velvet, white chiffon and green cloth are associated in this basque at figure No. 418 T in this magazine, with passementerie for decoration.

A handsome combination of woollen dress goods, brocaded silk and plain China silk is here pictured in the basque, which suggests somewhat the Louis modes. The back and sides extend to cost-basque depth and are closely adjusted by under-arm darts, side-back gores, and a curving center seam that terminates below the 4346

Front Views.

4346

4346 Back Views.

LADIES' RUSSIAN BLOUSE. (COPTRIGHT.) (For Description see Page 333.)

waist-line above extra width arranged at each side in an underfolded, forward-turning plait, which overlaps the hemmed back edge. Extra width allowed at the side-back seams is underfolded in a forwardturning plait at each side. The fronts open from the shoulders over a full chemisette of plain China silk and a vest of brocaded silk, which are arranged upon short fronts of lining adjusted by single bust darts and closed invisibly at the center. The vest is adjusted by single bust darts takon up with those in the fronts of lining, and the back edges of the vest and lining fronts are sewed to the fronts the back edges of the vest and mining fronts are seven to the fronts along the under-arm darts. The vest is closed at the center with button-holes and buttons. The lower edge forms a notch below the closing, end the top is shaped in low, rounding outline and finished with a rolling collar. A pocket welt is applied near the lower edge at each side. The chemiseite is gathered at the top and bottom, and its upper edge is included in the seam with a standing back gores and a curving center seam, and the fronts are cut aw from the shoulders to accommodate a vest of the contrasting mater The vest may be permanently sewed at the right side and closed the left side with button-holes and buttons, or it may be buttoned The coat sleeves are sufficiently full at the top to it both sides. prominently above the shoulders, and the wrists are plainly con pleted. At the neck is a becomingly high standing collar of vel that is closed at the left side.

All seasonable dress goods of either silken, woollen or cott texture will make up attractively in this way, and several vests m be provided for a single basque. The mode favors a combinat-of materials, but, if preferred, a single fabric may be used throug out, the vest being made as fauciful as desired by a tasteful ap cation of braid, passementerie, gimp, galloon, etc. We have pattern No. 4425 in thirteen sizes for ladies from two collar of China silk. Rising high at the back is a Leicester collar, the ends of which extend but little in front of the shoulder scame and are tacked beneath the top of revers that are joined to the front edges of the fronts. The revers extend to a little below the bust; three large buttons are ornamentally placed near the front edge of each front; and below the waist-line the fronts are cut away slightly after the manner of a man's dress coat. The coat sleeves rise fashionably high at the top and are finished at the wrists with cavalier cuffs that flare in characteristic fashion at the back of the

The mode is very picturesque and will develop handsomely in plain and brocaded silk, satin, figured and plain crepe de Chine, Bengaline, faille and all suitable varieties of woollen goods. The mode is so fanciful m effect that little applied decoration is necessary, but, if desired, gimp, galloon, passementerie and handsome braid may be sparingly added. We have pattern No. 4428 in thirteen sizes for ladies from twenty-eight to for-ty-six inches, bust measure. To make the basque for a lady of medium size, requires two yards and five-eighths of plain dress goods forty in-ches wide, with one yard of plain China silk and a yard and three-eighths of brocaded silk each twonty inches wide. Of one material, it needs five yards and threefourths twenty-two inches wide, or two yards and sevenforty-four eighths inches wide, or two vards and fiveyards eighths fifty inches wide. Price of pat-tern, 1s. 3d. or 30 cents.

LADIES' BASQUE WITH EXCHANGE. ABLE VEST.

(For Illustrations see Page 331.)

 \mathbf{f}

Ŋ

c

e

a

tı

cl

81

of

a

ti

ec

hε

de

No. 4425 .- A pret combination d light goods and vel vet is pictured in this basque at figure No 436 T in this maga zine.

Woollen dress good and velvet are here artistically united i the basque, which extends to a become ing depthand is point ed at the centere the front and bad The superb adjust y double bust dar under-arm and size fronts are cut ment is accomplish