With Cheque.

Sir,
Referring to your letter of the 7th instant, I beg to say that in 1902 only three shares of annuity were funded for the children of No 20 Big Island Band. The children's names were respectively Agnes, Theresa and Mekateskwaneb. In 1903 the shares of these three children, together with the share of the boy Joseph (since deceased) were funded. There is therefore only one year's savings ($5.00) payable to No 20 on account of his deceased son Joseph. A cheque No 5742 in his favour for that amount is enclosed herewith.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
