

Five-Minute Object Sermons

Continued

Unsolicited Commendations

"GOOTY, SOUTH INDIA.

"The sermons are very suggestive, stimulating, and helpful. They do not lose any of their force when put in our vernacular garb."—SILAS BURDER, Converted Brahmin and Headmaster of Christian Training Institute.

"SAGA, JAPAN.

"Please send me a copy of Stall's 'Five-minute Sermons to Children.' I have heard this book highly commended by a Presbyterian missionary for use among the Japanese."—REV. J. A. B. SCHERER, Lutheran Missionary.

"STEELTON, PA.

"Our daughter Allie, only seven years old, can't wait till evening to have us read the sermons, which she readily understands.

H. E. MESSNER."

"ALBANY, N. Y.

"Just what I have wanted for the children. I read them four sermons each evening, and then they want me to continue.

MRS. DEBORAH A. VOSBURG."

"MOOSE MEADOW, CONN.

"SYLVANUS STALL, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Reverend Sir:—I wish to thank you in behalf of my school children for having your short sermons to children published. I read them to my school children as a part of our devotional exercises, and I often hear remarks like these: 'I wish the author would come to Moose Meadow. I wish I could hear him. I wish I could see him and thank him for writing those sermons. Can't we write to him and thank him?' etc. And so I have been led to write you, thanking you in their behalf. Have you published any other books along the same line?"

"Moose Meadow is a small country place in Eastern Connecticut, and I wished you to know that the country children enjoy your sermons equally well as city children, and I am very thankful that a copy of your book was put into my hands. I feel very grateful to God for putting it into the heart of some one to write such interesting sermons and beautiful object lessons.

"Respectfully, MRS. A. B. DAWE."
