

The following figures represent the forms of the seeds of some of the most common weeds, enlarged and natural size:

RIB-GRASS.

OX-EYE DAISY.

CHICORY.

SORREL.

RAGWEED.

BINDWEED.

WHITE COCKLE.

BLADDER CAMPION.

BLACK BINDWEED.

CHESS.

The following tabulated statement gives in concise form the results of our examination of the samples obtained from sixty different sources: