

Latest Missionary Books.

A Cycle of Cathay, or China, South and North. With Personal Reminiscences. By W. A. P. MARTIN, D.D., LL.D., President Emeritus of the Imperial Tungwen College, Peking. With 70 illustrations from photographs and naive drawings, and a map. 8vo, cloth decorated, $2.00.

"No student of Eastern affairs can afford to neglect this work, which will take its place with Dr. Williams's 'The Middle Kingdom' as an authoritative work on China."—The Outlook.

Letters from Armenia. Letters from the Scenes of the Recent Massacres in Armenia. By J. Rendel Harris and Helen B. Harris. With Prefatory Letter from the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone. Illustrated by reproductions from photographs of the places visited and a map showing the route followed. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

A calm, clear, obviously truthful account of the recent massacres of the Armenians by the Turks. The Letters were written by Mr. and Mrs. Harris to friends in England, who were deeply stirred.

The Gist of Japan. The Islands, their People and Missions. By Rev. R. B. PEERY, A.M., Ph.D., of the Lutheran Mission, Saga. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, decorated, $1.25.

Those who wish to know the "gist" of those matters Japanese in which Westerners are most interested—the land, the people, the coming of Christianity, the difficulties and prospects of her missions, the condition of the native Church—will find it set down in Dr. Peery's book in a very interesting, reliable, instructive and condensed form.

Seven Years in Sierra Leone. The Story of the Missionary Work of William A. B. Johnson. By Rev. ARTHUR T. PIERSON, D.D. 16mo, cloth, 1.60.

Johnson was a missionary of the Church Missionary Society in Regent's Town, Sierra Leone, Africa, from 1816 to 1823. His experiences, here told in Dr. Pierson's fervent and vigorous style, were most extraordinary and well worth the telling, even at this late day.

In the Tiger Jungle, and other Stories of Missionary Work among the Telugus. By Rev. J. CHAMBERLAIN, M.D., D.D., for 37 years a Missionary in India. 12mo, cloth decorated, $1.00.

"The doctor writes in a fascinating style, and in so realistic and vivid a manner as to make the countries described and the stirring adventures through which he passed live again upon the printed page, while the whole book glows with an intense and pure missionary fervor. Those who want to know more of India (the fairyland of romance), and to become better acquainted with the sacrifices and labors of our missionaries in that far-off country, can do no better than read this thrilling book."—Christian Work.

A Concise History of Missions. By Rev. E. M. Bliss, D.D. 16mo, cloth, 75 cents. In press.

A systematic and thorough historical study of missions in all ages, by the editor of "The Encyclopedia of Missions," an acknowledged expert.