

6.—The several Faculties shall from time to time frame Regulations, as occasion may require, touching the details of the course of study and teaching in their respective Departments of the University,—the number, times and mode of all examinations thereto appertaining, whether for Matriculation, Graduation or otherwise,—the admission of Students, whether to the Regular Course of Study thereof, or to any Special Course of Study connected therewith, or to instruction in any particular branch of such Study,—the amount and mode of payment of all Fees therein,—and the discipline and internal government thereof; and shall duly enforce such Regulations; and may alter or repeal the same or any of them; and shall hear and determine all complaints as to the violation thereof. Provided always, that such Regulations, or such alteration or repeal thereof, be first approved by the Corporation; that such Regulations shall be further subject to alteration or repeal by the Corporation; that no Student shall be expelled without the consent of the Corporation; and that the Corporation, if it see fit, may entertain appeal from any decision of a Faculty, whereby any punishment more severe than reprimand may have been imposed on any Student.

7.—Meetings of the Faculty of Arts shall be held at least once in every two weeks during the Academical year, at such time and place as by such Faculty may be appointed; and, in the absence of the Principal and Vice-Principal, the Senior Professor present shall preside.

8.—Meetings of the other Faculties shall be held as often as occasion may require, and at such time and place as by each Faculty may be appointed; and, in the absence of the Principal and Dean of Faculty, the Senior Member present shall preside.

9.—The Rector of the High School Department shall have the general control and oversight of that Department, and of all instructing and other Officers connected therewith; shall enforce order and discipline therein; shall ordain therefor—subject to the approval or direction (as the case may be) of the Corporation—the number and length of the Terms and Vacations, the details of the course of study and teaching, the times and manner of all Examinations, the rates of Fees, and the mode and times of payment of such Fees; and for all or any of such purposes shall, from time to time, make such Regulations as may be requisite; subject always, to the approval or direction (as the case may be) of the Corporation.

10.—There shall be a Standing Committee of the Corporation, whose duty it shall be to visit the said Department from time to time, and at least twice a month; to confer with the Rector and Teachers on all matters connected with the studies, discipline and government of the Department; and to report thereon to the Corporation.
