NOTICE.

We bespeak the cordial welcome and sympathy of all our Parishioners for the Rev. D. Williams, B.A., our Assistant Minister. The valuable service which he has already rendered to the Church in Wales, as well as to the cause of Theological Training at Lampeter College, gives Mr. Williams a claim upon our hearty support and friendship which is not likely to be disregarded.

The Rev. A. Peache, D.D., of London, England, and his sister, Miss Peache, have generously given £50 each to our new Church. As a congregation we owe them a great debt of gratitude for this latest act of open-handed liberality to our Diocese and Parish. If only the luxury of giving back to God were more widely appreciated, and carried out on a similar scale, our Church might be built and paid for this year, and consecrated on December 27th (St. John the Evangelist's Day), as a Jubilee Thankoffering.
