METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

REMITTANCES.—Superintendents are respectfully reminded of the action of the Gen. Conference, requiring prompt remittances to be made of all Missionary Moneys collected. Those sums should be sent through the Chairmen of Districts to the Conference Treasurer, and by the latter Officer to the head office, without delay. The General Treasurers have already advanced some $60,000, and bills are constantly maturing. Please do not wait until the end of the year, or until you have a large amount, but remit as soon as collections are taken up.

COLLECTOR'S BOOKS, ETC.

A full supply of Collector's Books, Juvenile Collecting Cards, and Missionary Boxes will be kept at the Book Room, Halifax, in order to meet more promptly the wants of Circuits in the Maritime Provinces. These articles are supplied free.

INCOME NEEDED.

In order to meet the grants recently made by the Central Board, and pay the debt of the Society, we will require an income for the current year of about $200,000. The Church is abundantly able to raise this amount, and we confidently believe it will be done.

JOHN MACDONALD, Treasurer. A. SUTHERLAND, Mission Rooms, Oct. 20, 1875.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE DIST CHURCH OF CANADA.

Sunday Services.

The sermon in Brunswick Church, in the morning, was by the Rev. J. Latham from "AND ON HIS HEAD WEAR CROWNS."

The theme announced, an expository remarks upon the words of the text, and the splendour of the vision, was the Rev. Redeemer. Crowns were given and he had crown rights.

I. CROWNS.—"And on his many crowns,"—crowns of richness and lustre flashed light from His immortal brow were not simply garlands, the of victory, but diadems; and the insignia of royalty and of dominion. The legal Redeemer was an inspiring brightener, with the constant increasing illumination of Revelation the ages of prophecy and promise of the woman became the Jacob, the Shiloh of Judah, of the house of David, and in Messianic strains of the prophet, wonderful counsellor mightly God, the everlasting Father the Prince of peace, it was that the king should reign and that His power should be policy beneficent, His dominion lasting—that majesty should crown, righteousness His scepter His law, and that His glory fill the whole earth. These were conceptions not to be realized of earthly estate. The Kingdom of Christ was not of this world, attempted no rivalry with the and potentates of earth. Instead magnificent palace, a purple wreathed and jewelled crown, a scepter, an overflowing victorious armies and an established throne, He was poor, mingled with common people, had no place His head, was crowned with thorns.

WOMAN, BEHOLD THY SON, not "behold me, thy son," but, "John, thy son henceforth." Corresponding remark to John, thy mother."

He was Lord of all; exalted above principality and power, might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world but also in that which is to come.

To us especially it was a matter of profound and thrilling interest that the crown of earth, of the church, of a
