Lille Defences Are Improved to Provide Grand Key Positions.

London, Sept. 25.—Advices reaching London from German and Dutch sources indicate that the German positions in Belgium and France are being heavily reinforced in anticipation of an early general offensive by the allies. Unusually large movements of troops westward have been noticed in the last week. These, observers say are in the main fresh levies apparent-

In addition to strengthening their fortifications along the Belgian coast, which have been severely battered by Franco-British warships in their occasional bombardments, the Germans are said to be rebuilding the fortifi-cations at Lille. Once a strong frontier fortress, the French abandoned it before the first German drive on Paris, and after destroyin, as much the fortified work as possible. As the key to the entire German front in Northern France, it is expected every effort will be made to provide as formidable a barrier to an allied advance as military engineering can devise. The feeling is growing here that a widespread offensive will begin in the near future, The Autumn rains are due before another six weeks, and the wet season will preclude any great operations, especially in the low lying country along the coast. This fact leads observers here to believe General Joffre and Field Marshal French will order their advance by mid-October at the latest.

The Hot Weather Test makes people better acquainted with their resources of strength and endurance. Many find they need Hood's Sarsaparilla, which invigor-
