ESTABLISH FUND TO PUNISH LYNCHING

Furniture Texas Newspaper Strives to Help Stamp Out Lawlessness and Rugs

(U. S. Paper.)
The publishers of the San Antonio
Texas, Express have established and set aside a fund of $100,000 to be used in combating the crime of lynching in this country; thereby to aid in stamping out the lawlessness and violence of the mob. At the latest meeting of the stock-holders of the Express Publishing company, August 1, it was determined to devote this sum of money to the purpose of rewarding persons who shall be directly responsible for the arrest and conviction of those who incite riots and mob outbreaks that result in lynching, and of those who perpetrate the lynching crim

It was the opinion of every member of the stocktaking body at the meeting that the irremediable injustices, the debasement and degradationed by a crime that invariably artifies a content for level and the stocktaking the statement of the stocktaking and the statement of the sta exhibits a contempt for law and order, and an enmity to the decent systems of courts and law enforcement, must be brought to an end throughout the United States.

ment, must be brought to an end throughout the United States.

Lynching must no donger go unpunished or lightly punished, in any state or districts of this nation.

The anti-lynching fund of the San Antonio Express will be employed in this manner.

A reward of $500 will be paid to each person who shall be directly responsible for the arrest with subsequent conviction and punishment of any person or persons who were instrumental in arousing a mob to commit a lynching itself, when the individual lynched was not a Negro.

A reward of $1000 will be paid to each person who shall be directly responsible for the arrest with subsequent conviction and punishment of any person or persons who were instrumental in arousing a mob to commit a lynching or in putting through the lynching itself, when the individual lynched was not commit a lynching or in putting through the lynching arousing a mob to commit a lynching or in putting through the lynching or in putting the lynching or in putting through the lynching or in putting thro This fund of $100,000 and the offer of reward thereunder will be maintained and in effect for a period of five years from August 2, 1912.

The system of rewards will apply to any and every crime of lynching committed within the bounds of consequences.
