formed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father. The ushers were W. L. Mackenzie King, Hammel Hill, Ian Brenky and C. E. Wathon. After the wedding a reception follow-ed at the bride's father's residence n Somerset street. The collectio of marriage gifts was large and costly. Among them were black bear-skins large and small, from the west. The young couple left for Montreal, where they will spend a couple of months before taking up their residence at Edmonton.
