NEWBORO.

Quite a number from here spent the 2nd in Westport and report only a fair time.

An excursion party from here went up the lakes on Monday evening on the steam yacht Jopl. A very pleasant time was spent.

Misses Cora and Elma Wittse of Athens are the guests of Miss Blanch Gallagher.

Messrs. C. Nash and F. Ritter of Athens are spending a few days here, the guests of J. C. Eaton.

The campers are more numerous than ever, which makes business in every branch more stirring.

Miss Ida Lyons is spending a few days in Brockville.

Mrs. (Dr.) R. H. Preston of Ottawa is visiting friends and relatives here. She is welcome back at any time.

A number of about twelve from here wheeled to Westport in one party on Monday last.

GLENBUELL.

MONDAY, Aug. 2nd.—Most of the farmers in this section have finished their haying.

The lawn social on Friday evening last was a great success. There was a fine programme of recitations, singing, excellent music by Prof. Lewis of Addison, and violin selections by Mr. Will. W. Percival. A grand supper was partaken of. Everything went off very satisfactory. It was highly enjoyed by those who were in attendance. Receipts realized were about $20.00, which will go in aid of our Sunday school.

Mrs. Woods was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Howe, recently.

A number from here took in the excursion to Westport over the B. & W. R.R. on Monday. A few attended the grand later carnival at Brockville. All report both to have been enjoyable occasions.

At an event a few evenings ago a certain one of the gay laddies of our group and a fair young damsel of a mile or so away were in attendance, and the laddie, making calculations of escorting the maid to her home, lost his hat and while looking for it the maid got sleepy and a carriage coming along was helped in by its occupant and carried to her home in safety; so, by way of speaking, the laddie got left.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Stewart spent Sunday at his brother's, John Stewart of Lake Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Conroy have left our midst and taken up their abode in the vicinity of the Brockville cemetery. We wish them every success.

Work is in progress remodeling the fair ground buildings at FortHorn. Wm. Grey, our venerable carpenter, has the job.

Miss Giles is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. J. Gilroy.

HARD ISLAND.

THURSDAY, 29.—The following lines are composed and written in respect to the aged ones of our hamlet, Wright's Corners, and the Reporter village:

"Twas a glorious evening, and the slowly setting sun Bade the weary reapers toil no more; For it was setting soon, to glid a Sabbath morn."

When I thought how blessed are the aged in the Lord, Whom we so lovingly sink in the west; For soon they'll wake in Heaven to reap a rich For He giveth life beloved rest.

He knows they're often weary, and the tolling of the bell, Which thrills them to the core, He sees the old which thrills them to the core, But soon they'll wake in glory, they'll sing redemption songs, And know the greater triumphs of His grace.

Oh, glory is a crown of glory is the wise and with life's battle bravely fought and won, For number with the faithful to them it will be done. "Come, blessed," when the reaping time is done.
