DISTRICT NEWS

GLOSSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Malvin Wilcox of Athens spent Sunday at Mr. W. G. Lee's.

Miss Edith and Agnes Hawkins of Alexander Bay spent Sunday the guests of Miss Eva Brown.

Mrs. J. Hewitt is very ill at present. The body of the late Mrs. John Baker of Smith's Falls was brought here and buried in Barber's burying ground on Saturday last.

DAYTOWN

Arden Huffman has returned from Jasper after spending a few weeks there.

Mr. James Huffman has Mr. Will Topping doing the carpenter work on his new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eaton and daughter Violet of Frankville were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wood, last Sunday.

Miss Miller has gone to Toledo again.

Miss Estella Irwin has returned from visiting his sister, Mrs. Harrie Stevens of Athens.

Mr. Leon R. Wood of Rome, N. Y., has gone home after spending three weeks with relatives here.

MORTON

Our cheese factory will close on November 17, after a very successful season's work.

Our teacher, Miss Jennie M. A. Eyre, will teach in our school during the year 1906.

Master David Somerville has been very ill for about a week. We are very much pleased to learn that he is recovering under the skilful treatment of Dr. McGhie of Elgin and having had very faithful nursing.

The funeral procession of the late Wm. Perrin passed through here on Wednesday to St. John's church.

Rev. J. A. McDonald has gone to Athens to take the services of the Presbyterian church. We expect the pleasure of having Rev. I. N. Beckstedt with us to-morrow.

FRANKVILLE

Rev. Mr. Oliver is still very low; little hopes of his recovery. His son, Mr. Campbell Oliver, arrived home on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Rilance is taking Rev. Mr. Oliver's work and seems to be well received.

There was a Halloween party held in Johnston's Hall. Quite a number were present and all report a good time, although at the midnight hour they were visited by five lady and two gentlemen ghosts. It did not seem to dampen their spirits or mar their pleasure. Earlier in the evening they had a visit from an Indian chief and his squaw, who took part in their games. I forgot to say the ghosts were alive enough to eat supper with the rest of the party. Not many old fashioned tricks were played, excepting a few gates laid aside.

There was a party held at the home of Mrs. Harry Cooper on Friday, 8rd, also one at the home of Mr. Wm. Palmer, Plum Hollow, the same evening. Representatives from here were at each place and report an excellent time.

Miss Jessie Kilborn of Smith's Falls spent Sunday at her home here.

SEELEY'S BAY

Wm. Maroghan has moved into his new house.

Geo. C. Moore's condition has improved a little.

M. Chapman and C. Putnam are fitting up a skating rink on R. Bryan's lot.

Will J. White of Toronto, the concert comedian, will give an entertainment in the Masonic hall, Nov. 17th.

Jno. Hudson, having sold his farm, will sell his farming implements, etc., by auction Nov. 28rd, after which he will remove to Kingston and take up residence.

Wm. Whitton of Portland has secured a position with J. A. Steacy to learn tinsmithing.

Alex. Dory of Gananoque has secured a position in W. J. Berry's blacksmith shop and has removed his family and taken up residence here.

Two or three of our young men propose fitting up a skating rink.

The Sons of Temperance Division have reorganized here with bright prospects.

GLEN MORRIS

The Glen has put on a wintry appearance and the busy Glenites are preparing for the cold season.

Miss Johnson contemplates giving an entertainment at the close of the school term. She has the hearty approval of the neighborhood in her enterprise.

Mrs. George Bradley has been visiting her daughters at Sand Bay.

Mr. Boyd Hall, home from the great West, has been visiting at Royal Moore's.

Rinaldo Covey of this place and Miss Caroline Stevens of Charleston were quietly married last week in Lansdowne. Their many friends here wish them all happiness and prosperity in their new home.

The sad little legend of "The Babes in the Wood" might have been repeated here last week, when two of our venturesome youths, out ooon hunting, spent the night in a lonely shanty in the depths of Green's woods. The children, however, returned to their parents in the morning and the tragedy was averted.

NEWBORO

Two of Newboro's most popular young people were quietly united in the bonds of matrimony at an early hour Wednesday, Nov. 1st, in St. Mary's Church, by the rector, Rev. J. C. Stanton. The bride was Miss Jennie, eldest daughter of James Lyons, while the groom was Arthur Hull, a popular young farmer of this vicinity. The bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss Ida Lyons, and Samuel Pritchard was best man. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip to Gananoque and Harrowsmith. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of conjugal bliss.

Mr. Wm. Scott is now manager of the Smith's Fall stage route. Tenders are out for the position of driver from the 1st of January next for the following four years.

The whole community was sadly shocked by the news of the death of Mrs. Henry Grothier of this place, which occurred at her home about two miles from here on Monday evening. Deceased had been suffering for some time with a cancer, and her demise was not altogether unexpected. She has been a resident of this vicinity for all her lifetime, and during her long life of 78 years, she has made a host of warm friends who will feel the loss of a loving friend. She also leaves a husband and one daughter at home and two sons, Frederick residing at Lansdowne and Richard living in Newboro. Their many friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved relatives. The funeral, which took place to St. Mary's Church, of which she was a life long member, was largely attended.

Mr. John Cawley, agent of the Imperial Life Assurance Company, Brockville, was in town last week on business.

Miss E. Gallagher and Benj. Tett attended the High School Commencement in Athens last week.

Mr. Barney Boyd of the Union Bank staff, Portland, was in town last week.

PHILLIPSVILLE

The farmers are getting their plowing nearly done, thanks to the open weather.

R. C. Haskin is getting his out-buildings nearly completed. When done, he will have a very handy and comfortable drivehouse and stables.

W. H. Earl has his large barn enclosed and painted. The men are now finishing the stables in the basement.

The cheese factory patrons are quite jubilant over the price of cheese, 12½c.

Miss Anna Kennedy has had to give up her school on account of ill health. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Miss Verna Davison is teaching the Phillipsville public school for the balance of 1905.

Mrs. Loveland of Missoula, Montana, and three children, has arrived at her mother's, Mrs. Eveline Brown, to stay the winter. Eighteen years ago Mrs. Loveland (then Miss Menerva Brown) went out to that country with her brother, Abner. Two years later he went to Washington territory and for 16 years she has not seen him. Later, Miss Brown married a Mr. Loveland and moved on to a farm where they accumulated some wealth. Last spring her husband died and she is now visiting the land of her birth.

A. A. Ludbrook of Verona is paying his brother a visit. He is taking a few snapshots; also some photographs.

Rev. P. S. Dunham of St. Lawrence County, N. Y., paid his sister a visit last week.

An Illustrated Home Paper

The Magazine section of the Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer is happily unique in its pictorial and literary qualities. No other paper going into the homes of the farmers of Canada is able to keep its readers so closely in touch with, and so well informed regarding, people and events of national interest. The illustrations and articles published each week help to widen the knowledge and increase the culture and refinement of those who are privileged to receive The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer. This splendid family newspaper enables those even farthest removed from the centres of population to enjoy and profit by the best that art and talent have to offer.
