when Mr. and Mrs. William Ball and the Misses Ball entertained at the Oddfellows' Auditorium.

The ball room presented a brilliant and fascinating scene. Chaste evidences of dainty decorative accomplishment and a delicate profusion of flowers and foliage graced the interjor, while to the mystic melodies of the music of Zickle's far-famed Detroit orchestra, youth and beauty paid graceful tribute at the alluring shrine of Terpsichore.

The guests gathered from many parts of the province, and the function was especially enjoyable. The gowns of the fair dancers were exquisitely fashioned and lent a subtle charm to the brilliant and picturesque scene. Mr. and Mrs. Ball, assisted by their fair daughters, received the guests on their entry into the ball room. Many very handsome and chaste costumes were in evidence, and, beneath the brilliant electric lights, the gowns and jewels of the fair maidens sparkled brightly in contrast with the more sombre garb of their gallant partners. All was merry, and gay laughter and whispered nothings, floating lightly through the room, gave life and spirit to the happy gathering of ashion and culture.

Luncheon was served on the third loor at the midnight hour. Tables, delicately decorated and luxuriantly laden, were arranged in banquet form Works. and all the happy dancers lunched to-

The ball enjoyed several unique and pleasing features that will cause it to be remembered as the most pleasing and entertaining dance in the history of Maple City social functions.

The guests were all enthasiastic in their appreciation of the kindness, thoughtfulness and carefulness, exhibited on every side, in arranging for their comfort and convenience Majds-in-waiting assisted the ladies in their preparations for their entrance, and careful attendants took charge of the street apparel of the gentlemen and gave each guest every

Joseph I cone, Seven Years a Hopeless Invalid Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills

Discharged From Hospital as Incurable, Given up by Doctors-He is Now Back at his Work Again.

Cottel's Cove, Nfld., Dec. 29.—(Special).—Among the lobster fishermen here the wonderful cure of Joseph Boone, one of their number has created a sensation. They look on it as approaching the miraculous. For eight years, Joseph Bonne was a hopeless invalid. For seven years he was unable to work. He was discharged from the hospital after seven months treatment as incurable, Several doctors tried in vain to give him relief for those terrible pains and aches arising from Kidney Com-

The cure of a friend by Dodd's Kidney Pills tempted him to try them. He used three dozen boxes and to-day he is working at lobster fishing and doing as big a day's work as any of his mates.

This in brief is the story of Joseph Boone. He has to tell it often to people who never expected to see him do a day's work again and he aldo a day's work again and he al-ways adds:—

"I am still using Dodd's Kidney Pills and I find a great benefit in every box I use. I can scarcely be-lieve it is myself is in it at all after seven years of such suffering from complicated complaint of the Back and Kidneys."

A PANIC AT FEZ

THE SULTAN BARRICADED IN HIS PALACE.

Missicnaries Take Their Departure For Safer Places-Spain Preparing Fer Eventualities.

Tangier, Morocco, Dec. 30 .- The Sultan of Morocco is said to have retired to the palace at Fez, with all his available artillery and ammunition, and to have strongly barricaded himself, in conequence of a threatened attack on the part of the rebeis.

Madrid, Dec. 30.—The Spanish Gov. ernment is preparing for eventualities in Morocco, and has ordered troops at Malaga, Cadiz and Algeciras to be held in readiness to promptly reinforce the garrisons at Ceuta and Melillo, Morocco, should the situation require it. Spanish cruiser has been ordered to Tangier. According to despatches re-ceived here from Tangier the rebels chased the troops of the Sultan of Morocco to the gates of Fez. It is re-ported that the Europeans are preparing to leave Fez.

The Premier says the Spanish Minister at Tangier telegraphs that he has Foreign Affairs of Morocco, who while he takes a serious view of the situa-tion says it is not hopeless. The de-feat of the Sultan's troops, the Foreign Minister adds, was due to a surprise. He claims there has been no serious

The bat-tleship Implacable will follow the other warships shortly.

VERDICT EXONERATE HIS BROTHER.

Evidence as to Tortures the Watsons Were Subjected to-Two Arrests on Burglary Charge.

Brantford, Dec. 30 .- The inquest into the circumstances attending the trag. death of Wesley Watson, which occurred last Tuesday morning at his home near Middleport was resumed yesterday morning in the hall of that village. The session occupied about five hours and seven witnesses in thit were heard, the chief evidence being that presented by James Watson, a hother of the deceased. Dr. Fissette of this city pre sided and A. J. Witkes, K.C., Crown Attorney, represented the Crown. W. C. Livingston looked after the interests of the Watsons. Samuel Watson was not present, the authorities deeming his appearance unnecessary. This after-noon he will be taken before Squire Leitch of this city.

The jury returned the following ver-dict:—"We find that Wesley Watson met his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by Samuel Watson, during a period of irresponsibility induced by excessive nervous and mental fear border-ing on mania due to the maltreatment previously inflicted by burglars, and the belief that they were again to be subjected to worse abuse by the same parties. We find no evidence of malice or premeditation, and believe that he fully supposed his victim was a bur-
