TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The total receipts at the City Cattle Market this week are 242 cars; consisting of 8791 head of cattle, 6276 sheep and lambs, 1673 hogs and 248 catves. In addition to this there were 24 horses. While the early part of the week opened a trifle weak, the latter was marked by a comparatively fismer tone aitho, with the possible exception of really good butchers, no appreciable change in prices could be noted. This week was marked by ahoremally heavy receipts, and the prices maintained are regarded as fairly satisfactory. Too much inferior stuff has been offered on the City Market during the past week, but first-class offerings of whatever grade have found a steady market. On the market vesterday-only dix cars were received comprising principally sheep and lambs, and these sold at unchanged quotations.

TORONTO JUNCTION LIVE STOCK. Receipts at the Union Stock Yards rester-day were 220 cattle, 49 sheep and 1073 hogs. Nothing Is a Trifle! The half inch United States standard screw thread has thirteen turns per inch. Mr. Welsh, the original superin tendent of the Westinghouse Air Brake works, used for the half inch bolt twelve threads instead of thirteen. This decision has proved to be a mistake, and the company would be glad to change it, but the immense number of brake equipments which are out all over the world, the constant call for repairs and extensions make it impossi-

A JUDICIOUS INQUIRY.

A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if got a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists. A well known travelling man who

Doubled Initials For Plurals. Under the rule that the initial letter of a word is sometimes doubled to sig nify the plural, bb would be a proper abbreviation for barrels. Probably some one, unfamiliar with the rule and thinking the abbreviation too concise, as it might be mistaken for an abbre viation for boxes, bundles, bags of butts, made it bbl. for one barrel, and then, still ignorant of the rule, added an s for the plural, making it bbls. for

HOW TO CURE CORNS AND BUN-

First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shee. As a gangera linishould be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a genera liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by all druggists.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

Fourteenth Annual Convention Opens at Ottawa on Friday. Ottawa, Oct. 7.—With Lauder Hall filled with delegate: from nearly every city in Canada and visitors from the United States, James Catto, Toronto president of the Brotherhood of Andrew in Canada, yesterday morning formally opened the fourteenth con-vention of the brotherhood. The an-nual reports showed an active membership in Canada in the 155 chapters who have sent statements of 2,950, as compared with 1.550 in 1904 and 800 in 1903. In all there are 227 chapters, of which 41 are in the Diocese of Toronto The financial statement showed the receipts during the year, including a balance of $84 from 1904, to be $3,136; the expenditure, $3,116; balance, $20. The junior work in the past year was most successful. There are 34 chap-

FOLLOWED HER CUE.

She Asked No Questions Not Suggest-

When the elderly aunt was here she was invited out to dinner with the family and had no thought of refusing. She has a heart in her as big as the proverbial Yankee cheese, but, by way of comparison, her bump of inquisitiveness is as large as the new county building. That is why the nephew had

"You see, auntie," he began diplomatically, "it is different in the city.

There is not the same freedom of speech among friends and neighbors. We are more conservative, as it were.'

"Don't gossip as much, you mean," her nose and chin rising in unison. "You think I'm grass fed, as some of you metropolis people of culture and refinement put it. I'll not disgrace you, Tommy. I'll ask no questions that are not suggested by the conversation. Is that a safe rule?" "Perfectly, auntie. Pardon me for thinking that I might give you a hint."

"Worked splendidly," the aunt reported after the affair was over. had heard you taking over a good many reports about those people you know, so i knew how to set my stakes. When he told me he had made a pile on stocks I asked him if he had any idea of settling up the debts he ran away from down in New Jersey. You never see a man get so red, and he changed in a wink to talking about his family. 'Is it true,' says I, 'this scandalous report that you and your wife were both divorced before you married

"Heavens!" "I thought he was going into a con-suption, but I talked sympathetic and told him that the world wouldn't care bow much he owed or how many previous wives or husbands there was now that he is rich. That did the business, for he told me in the pleasantes way that people who had never mar-ried were the best judges of such matters and said he was sorry that he and his family would be unable to see any more of me while I'm here. I knew could take care of myself."

There was nothing for the nephew to do but groan until he got to the basement, where he could say things out loud to himself

A Ghastly Excuse.

That men grow callous in the discharge of routine duties is exemplified in the story of the trained nurse who lay across the feet of his patient smoking a long black cigar with great relish. The patient, recovering from swoon, looked down at his attendant and said:

"Hey! What are you doing down there lying on my feet?" "I beg your pardon," replied the nurse, scrambling to his feet. "I thought you were dead."

The Retort Courteous. First Artist-Well, old man, how is usiness? Second Artist-Oh, splendld. Got a commission this morning for a million aire. Wants his children painted very badly

First Artist (pleasantly)-Well, my boy, you're the very man for the job.

Quite an Estate. The Gorilla—Did you hear about the demise of poor Mr. Ostrich? The Hippo-Why, no. Did he leave his wife anything?

The Gorilla—Yes, she took all the ar-ticles found in his stomach and opened a department store.

Recommendation Mr. Oilroll-Is Squirmington a good

An Influence. "Do you know anything about the Count Fucash's family tree?"
"No," answered Miss Cayenne

"Judging from his jewelry and court decorations, it might have been a Christmas tree."

Oxford Chancellor Range

The Oxford Chancellor Range is built to stand the wear and tear of years of usage. The body is constructed of heavy patent rolled steel plates, interlined throughout with asbestos millboard. The steel body is closely riveted together with specially clinched rivets, so that no matter how hot the fire the body will not warp and allow the heat to escape. This construction makes the Oxford Chancellor Range perfectly and permanently airtight. No leak e into the flues, stoll ping the draft ar impairing the ove heat, is possible

The asbestos interlining insulates the heat of the rang the outside of the range never getting overheated.

If you would know more of the Oxford Chancello-Range write us, and we'll tell you all about it and where you can see it.
