Stocks and Bonds

Noon Stock Letter. (Received by A. E. Carpenter from Ennis & Stoppin.)

New York, Nov. 22.—The market during the morning developed firmness in a number of leading issues which have successfully resisted steady pressure during the week; $2,900,000 gold was engaged from abroad, partly from Paris. Locomotive preference is lower on revelation that $900,000 of Treasury stock has been sold since the start, June 30. The low price of S. R. issues is not strange when it is considered that the 5 per cent. notes ranking just above the preferred stock are offered at 70, with best bid many points lower. Traders have run up large maturing time loans on Atchison, but none of this stock seems to be offering. It is believed that there is still moderate collateral liquidation in Smelters. There is good buying again in Union Pacific. It is practically confirmed that Union Pacific has sold, St. Paul and the Hill issues moderately taking advantage of conditions to replace the stock with purchase of part-paid certificates to new stock of these companies. Copper exports this week are 10,077 tons, a good increase over recent weeks. The Pan Handle statement of October-November is encouraging. In last fiscal year B. & O. had a margin of more than seven million dollars over the 6 per cent. dividend, and this means "room" for a 25 per cent. shrinkage in net before reaching dividend requirements. Railroad officials believe that net results for fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, will show increase in net earnings owing to excellent increases in gross for first part of the period, and an expected reduction of expenses in later months of the year. The actual financial conditions will be better than shown in the statement, owing to the receipt of $10,000,000 gold to-day and to-morrow. Appearances are that Union Pacific, S. Pacific, Reading, Steel, Smelters and A. C. P. have been quite thoroughly liquidated. We favor purchases on fair opportunity.—Ennis & Stoppin.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK

Receipts of live stock at the city yards since Tuesday are reported as follows: There were 151 carloads, composed of 2116 cattle, 259 hogs, 423 sheep and lambs, and 129 turkeys. The extra choice kind did not show. The market was direct to other packers than the Davies Company. The quality of stock in all classes was about the same as last week. There was a fair trade all round, but the price tending downwards, excepting for a few of the best, and even for these they were not as high as they were some few weeks ago. Exporters.—There was nothing doing in the export trade excepting for a few bulls, which sold for $12 1/2 to $14 per cwt. The market for the Harris Abattoir Company reports the following prices: A few good calves, 200 to 300 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium calves, 100 to 200 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 200 to 300 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 300 to 400 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 400 to 500 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 500 to 600 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 600 to 700 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 700 to 800 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 800 to 900 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75; medium stockers, 900 to 1000 lbs., at $2.25 to $2.75.

BIG BUTCH MURDERED

He had Reformed and Walloped Dopey Bennis, so Maybe There Was a Grudge.

New York, Nov. 22.—Simon Ernestoff, known also on the east side as Big Butch, was murdered yesterday afternoon in a poolroom run by his brother Benjamin, at 131 Suffolk street. Butch was playing at one table with a boy named Samuel Sechechman, when a man ran down the stairs into the basement where the room is, and started firing at him.

Every one else in the place ran out except a helper named Dave Wagner, who crawled under one of the tables. In consequence there was no one who could or who cared to identify the shooter or give a description of him to the police. Simon tried to get away, but was found dead alongside one table with three bullets in his back.

According to Lieut. Hart, of the Mulberry street police station, Butch, whose picture is in the top of the gallery, numbered 6223, told him a while ago that he was going to reform. He was a sort of instructor of pickpockets and had been arrested and convicted as a Fagin. He served a term for that. In 1903 he was arrested on a charge of burglary.

His decision to reform may have cost him the friendship of some of his pals, because he thrashed one of them for trying to break up a ball that he had arranged a month ago. Dopey Bennis and Harry Soldier Boy, two of his pals, got up advertisements for a ball and distributed them before Butch's ball came off, so that he was angry and walloped Bennis.

These names are the only descriptions the police have of the two and they are looking for them.

HER SECRET. We occasionally meet a woman whose old age is as beautiful as the bloom of youth. We wonder how it has come about—what her secret is. Here are a few of the reasons:

She knew how to forget disagreeable things. She kept her nerves well in hand and inflicted them on no one. She mastered the art of saying pleasant things. She did not expect too much from her friends.

She made whatever work came to her congenial. She retained her illusions and did not believe all the world wicked and unkind. She relieved the miserable and sympathized with the sorrowful.

She did unto others as she would be done by, says the New York Evening Telegram, and now that she is old she has come to her and there is a halo of white hair about the head she is loved and considered. That is the secret of a long life and a happy one.

BROKE PROMISE.

THEY MET AND LOVED, ONLY TO BROKE PROMISE.

Sad Story of Miss Barnum's Broken Heart, Which Only $5,000 Will Mend—Mere Man Admits Soft Impachment.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 22.—(Special)—Loretta Barnum, a handsome young woman of 18 years, living at 688 South Division street, has started an action in Supreme Court to recover $5,000 for alleged breach of promise of marriage. She is suing James C. Lambert. The case was on the calendar in Part II yesterday, but was adjourned until Monday morning, when it will go to trial.

Being a minor, Miss Barnum has secured the appointment of William M. Gibson as guardian to conduct the action for her. According to her complaint, Lambert, after a courtship extending through some months, proposed marriage on July 16th of last year. Miss Barnum accepted the proposal, and they agreed upon the following Christmas day for the celebration of the marriage ceremony. The courtship continued until November 24th, when Miss Barnum received a note from Lambert stating that he wished to break the engagement.

Lambert has filed answer to Miss Barnum's complaint, and in it he admits having promised to marry Miss Barnum. He says that he promised to marry the young woman, believing that she was of the Catholic faith. The answer states that he learned some time later that Miss Barnum was a Protestant.

The second annual banquet of the fire department of the Canadian Westinghouse Co. took place at the Commercial Hotel last evening, and proved to be a very enjoyable affair. EMERALD Y. M. U.

Discussion on Foreign Labor at Last Night's Meeting.

The Emerald Y. M. U. held its regular weekly meeting last evening, which was well attended. After the business a little programme was provided for the boys, a few songs by Mr. Dayman, and a discussion on foreign labor, which proved very interesting.

Mr. R. Davis took the chair during the programme and remarked that more discussion on such matters would prove very beneficial to the members. The Union also decided to issue books to the members and their friends, who are requested to get verses from all wishing to contribute the sum of 10 cents being charged for each verse not exceeding four lines. After the Union has got 1,000 verses they will publish books with the verses in and charge 25 cents for same. Two valuable prizes will be given, one to the gentleman and the other to the lady getting the most verses. The Emerald Y. M. U. hopes to raise money to help the Union. At the next meeting a debate will be held, the subject being "Labor vs. Capital."

ELASTIC ALIEN LABOR LAW.

Party of Austrian Laborers Brought in From Duluth.

Port Arthur, Nov. 21.—The elasticity of the Dominion Government's alien labor law was shown this afternoon by the arrival here of a party of twenty-five Austrians, who came over from Duluth, and have gone to the construction camps on the Grand Trunk Pacific.

R. A. Burries, local immigration agent, received word early yesterday of the hiring of the men under contract, and immediately notified the Department of Immigration at Ottawa, but received no reply to his request for instructions.

He also sent word to the Commissioner at Winnipeg, who advised the admission of the men, provided they were not physically or otherwise unfit. They were allowed to pass.

A COMMISSION PROPOSED

To Investigate Removal of Affidavits From Court Files.

Chatham, Nov. 21.—It would appear that Conservatives and Liberals will join in asking of a party of twenty-five affidavits from the file in the revision courts in Tilbury and Raleigh. Last evening the local Conservative paper asked, "What of a commission?" in reference to the disclosures, with regard to the Tilbury East revision court, and the Liberals, having to-day agreed, through their local paper, it is anticipated no difficulty will be experienced in having Hon. Mr. Foy appoint commissioners.
