The devotions in St Dunstan's Cathedral will commence this evening at 7 o'clock, and will be held each evening during the month at the same liour.

ALL summer we congratulated our selves and our follow-citizens upon the very general respect with which the trees and flowers, which were set out last spring, had been treated by the public, and it is now with regret that we have to record acts which point too plainly to a determination on the par of some one or more to commit deed of vandalism. Last week we mentioned that a horse had been turned loose over the flower beds on Queen Square; since hen, several of the turnstiles have been broken upon different occasions, so as the more easily to allow of cattle being driven into the enclosure. In front of Mr. Philip Large's residence on Great orge Street, several of the trees were broken the other night, and we noticed hing of the same kind on King square. We sincerely trust that the trators of this mischief will be dis red and severely punished.
