With two turbines out of commission and an after compartment flooded, after collision with a "dud" torpedo during tactical manoeuvres, the United States destroyer Dent put into the harbor at Los Angeles with a jagged hole in its hull.

William Thompson, born at Tamworth, Ont., on June 20th, 1820, celebrated his 101st birthday at the Home for the Aged at Kingston the other day. The greater part of his life was spent as a lumberman and river driver. He is in fairly good health.

An explosion of fire damp destroyed the greater part of the Mont Cenis mine, Switzerland. Twenty-two men are known to be dead and a large number injured. Of the 300 who were in the mine at the time of the disaster, only 120 are accounted for.

Ten steamers have delivered cargoes of Canadian coal at Cherbourg, France, according to a correspondent of the London Times. This coal, the correspondent says, is being used to bunker ships which are unable to obtain fuel in British ports, owing to the miners' strike.

Toronto advices of June 23rd say: Haying is about completed in most parts of Ontario, and generally speaking there has been a fair crop. In some portions of the province the cutting of fall wheat will commence next week, with varied prospects. In some parts the fall wheat suffered considerably during the winter for the lack of the snow blanket.

Close on to a $100,000,000 in the estimated revenue this year from income taxation, the second instalment of which is due thirtieth of June. The response to the first instalment was general and brought in $39,000,000. The second will not be as heavy as a proportion, varying from ten to seventy per cent in different cities, paid the poll tax at the start.

A strong earthquake shook Messina and Reggio di Calabria about midnight Sunday last, according to a Milan despatch to the Daily Mail. Apparently there were neither victims nor serious damage. The quake was preceded by a strange howling which terrified the people. They fled to the open. A panic was averted in the Messina Theatre by one of the actors appealing for calm.

Farmers in southern Aroostook County, Maine, have dumped approximately 45,000 barrels of potatoes in their fields, where they will be ploughed in to serve as fertilizer. The producers were caught with a large surplus as a result of a falling market, which reduced the price from three dollars a barrel early in the season to forty cents a barrel today. In the northern part of the county starch factories took care of the surplus.

Calgary advices of June 23rd say: Harvesting operations have already started on the big farms of the Noble Foundation in Southern Alberta. Eleven binders are at work cutting 2,500 acres of Rosen rye, a new variety which is being tried out for the first time in this province. This is proved to be the earliest grain yet raised, and is at least thirty days ahead of any other variety of rye. The grain is standing four feet high and assures a heavy yield.

Major G. L. Jennings, Superintendent of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Edmonton, is escorting the judicial party that is to conduct the trial of Albert Lebeaux at Fort Providence, and will go on from that point to the Arctic Coast. He is taking five men to add to the Police Detachments in the north and will inspect all the posts down the McKenzie River to Fort McPherson and Herschel Island. The trial at Fort Providence of a Slavey Indian charged with the murder of his wife and infant child will be held about the second week in July. It will be the first jury trial ever held in McKenzie territory and will therefore be an object lesson to the natives of the north that British law and justice are to prevail in the wilderness. Judge L. Dubne has been commissioned to try the case.

Premier Meighen has accepted the invitation of the City of Edinburgh to receive the freedom of the city. The date set is July 18 or 19. The place where the ceremony will take place has not been selected. The script will be presented in an elaborate gold casket.

Flight-Lieut. Proctor, one of the most famous of British air fighters, who won the Victoria Cross in the war, bringing down 60 enemy airplanes and 28 balloons, was killed last week near London when his plane crashed while he was practising over Salisbury Plain. When at an altitude of 3,000 feet he started a loop, but the machine went into a nose dive. Lieut. Proctor's death was instantaneous.

Practically the last official act of His Excellency the Governor-General in Ottawa was to sign the order-in-council which will result in a bone-dry Ontario on July 18. His Excellency signed the order-in-council on Saturday, June 18th, prior to his departure for Quebec. Rt. Hon. Sir George Foster, acting Prime Minister stated that evoking that importations of liquor into Ontario would be illegal on the morning of July 18.

The British Antarctic expedition headed by Dr. Cope has discovered a new continental Antarctic region described as rich in oil, minerals and furs, according to a cable from Sydney, N.S.W., quoting the Sydney Morning Post. According to the brief despatches reaching Sydney from the "bottom of the world," strange birds of immense size, seals and gorgeous Emperor penguins inhabit the land beyond Tierra de Fuego, the area of which has not yet been computed.

It was intimated recently at Washington that Administration officials would welcome a revival of the suggestion that more formal diplomatic relations be established between Canada and the United States by appointment of a Canadian diplomatic representative to Washington. Reciprocal action by the United States in appointing a minister or ambassador would require legislation, it was explained, but pending such authorization a diplomatic commissioner could be sent to Canada.

Look. Read. Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!! We study the business. We know what suits a young man we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous J. W. H. Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00
