The London Free Press of Friday last says:—"Messrs E. R. Johnson, G. E.
Gorham and M. E. Winsor, of the Marshall (Mich.) Bicycle Club, accompanied by George B. Cox, of the Goderich Bicycle Club arrived here yesterday."

A McD. Allan left on Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Ontario Fruit Grower's Association. He will make a trip through the Niagara fruit district, and will, we understand, gather statistics connected with the canning business.

The Misses Nellie and Minnie Hamilton returned to St. Paul, Minn., accompanied by Mr. Tremblay, of St.
Paul, and Miss Tremblay, of Halifax, N. S., who had been the guests of Hugh Hamilton, West street, for a few weeks.

Road commissioners Girvin and Mason accompanied by Messrs Johnston, Young, Allen and the county clerk, examined the culvert at Dunlop on Tuesday last, and recommended that the local commissioner have it enlarged to twenty feet.

We regret to chronicle the demise of John Somerville, of London, who has been a confirmed invalid for a long time from a rheumatic affection. He was a partner at one time in the flouring mill operated at present by the Messrs. Henning.

Thos. Greenway, M.P.P., of Crystal City, Man., the leader of the opposition in the Manitoba Legislature, and a former Huronite, was in town last week accompanied by his two daughters. He has an abiding faith in the future of the Northwest.

John McGillivray, missionary to Byng Islet, Ont., received a pleasant surprise on Wednesday the 15th inst. His wife presented him upon the arrival of his brother Donald, per steamer Mag-netawase, with a handsome new row-boat costing $40.

On Tuesday, Aug. 21st, Ben Miller Courtney, Esq. paid a fraternal visit to the Goderich Court. After the business of the evening, the Goderich brethren invited the visiting brothers to Ball's where they entertained them with fruit, ice cream and cake.

The editor of the Exeter Times steps forward like a little man, and testifies as follows:—"A large number of our citizens went to Goderich, yesterday, on an excursion. They were highly delighted with the town, and only wish they could visit it more frequently."

Mrs. James Hyslop and three children, of Forest, are visiting at their old home, and at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saml.
Platt. Mrs. Hyslop has been suffering from a bronchial affection for some time, and thinks that the healing air of her old home will restore her to health.

Mrs. Capt. Sheppard and two children, left on the 23rd inst., to meet the steamer "Northerner," to accompany her husband on some of his trips. The "Northerner" is on an entirely new route this season, passing through the canal on her through trip from Buffalo to Chicago.

CHALLENGE.—I hereby agree to enter Erwin's black mare Polly for a trotting match on the Goderich course for $50 a side, mile heats, best three in five, to sully. Race to take place on the first day of October next. Put up or shut up. R. J. DELONG.

Chief Petty Officer of Wingham arrived in town on Monday night in charge of On Adolphus Ballew, committed in default of security to keep the peace against his wife. In this case, from what we learn, Adolphus, who goes by the name of "Husband No. 1," is more sinned against than sinning.

A rumor having got abroad that G. A.
Ross, local agent for the Sarnia implement company, had "cleared out," a post card has been received from Mr. Ross by R. S. Williams, of the Bank of Commerce, denying the imputation, and stating that he intends coming back shortly to ferret out the instigator of the rumor.

A very successful surgical operation was performed by doctors of this town on Tuesday, on the person of Thos. Cowherd, who has suffered the most excruciating pain for a length of time from a very sore leg. He is getting on very nicely after the amputation of the limb, and we trust that his life may be long spared him.

The Explorer returned from her trip to the fishing grounds on Tuesday. The party got more sunburn than fish, the wind and weather being against a catch.
A trip on shore after wild flowers, some of which are known as "ever-lasting," was much enjoyed by the writer and his youthful companion. Mr. Lewis is just proud of his vessel.

A GLEIC POEM.—It is announced that a Canadian edition of the poems of Evan McCull, the veteran Canadian poet, will shortly issue from the press. The productions will be brought out in two volumes, one containing his English poems and the other his effusions in his native Gaelic.
The publications will be awaited eagerly by the many admirers of the venerable bard.

The lacrosse match played at Seaford on Friday between the Goderich and Seaford clubs, was declared in favor of the Seaford team. The visitors were roughly treated by their rivals and the crowd, although our boys didn't let the Seaford slugs have it all their own way. It looked as if the roughs were determined that Goderich should be beaten at all hazards. Some of the Seaford players used shocking language, and the parking of an excellent supper, the company broke up, all wishing Mr.
Morris many happy returns of the day.

The fishing tug, Blanche Shelby, and the fish boat, James Freck, which by John Morris, of the boats Alberta and Speedy Messenger, owned by Allan Murray, and the fish boat Dispatch, owned by Robt. Clarke, left on Thursday morning for Greenock, above the Fishing Islands, for their fall catch. They will cure the fish caught, and pack them on shore, where cuts have been erected for the accommodation of the hardy crews.

THE CIVIC HOLIDAY.

How the Day was Spent by the Residents of Goderich.

Thursday of last week was observed as a civic holiday in Goderich, in accordance with the proclamation of the mayor.
The chief event of the day was the

EXCURSION TO LONDON, under the auspices of the temperance body of Goderich. Some 250 attended themselves of the opportunity to visit the Forest city, and view the various points of interest in that locality. By some error the excursion coaches intended for Goderich were left at Clinton the night before, and in consequence there was considerable crowding until that town was reached. The greatest good nature prevailed however, and the scan-tiness of space only made the young people keep closer together. The train reached London about eleven o'clock and the excursionists were duly notified to be in readiness to return by the regular train at 4 p. m. This arrangement did not seem pleasant to the majority of the visitors, who had calculated on a longer stay in the city. At 4 o'clock, however, the most of the excursionists were ready and willing to start for home, having surficed themselves with the sight of the city, and "seen the elephant" to their heart's content. After a pleasant return trip the party reached home shortly after 7 o'clock, in good spirits, and without having had a misadventure to mar the harmony of the trip.

Fitting the Heavy Shot.

To the Editor of the Huron Signal.
SIR,—I notice in your last issue of THE SIGNAL a challenge from Mr. John McPherson, of Kintail, offering to match any man in the counties of Huron and Bruce, under 100 lbs., to put the heavy shot. I will accept the challenge, the match to be competed on Saturday, Sept.
8, on the Lucknow Caledonian grounds, for not less than $20 a side. To show that I mean business, I have deposited $10 with Robt. Copeland, of Lucknow, to be the final stakeholder. Hoping to hear from Mr. McPherson soon, I am, yours truly,
D. GAUNT, Lucknow.

G. M. District Meeting.
The Goderich financial district meeting was held in the Methodist church, Clinton, on Tuesday last; Rev. James Gray, chairman, presided over the meeting. Rev. G. H. Cornish, secretary of the district, was at his post. A ministerial and delegate from nearly every circuit on the district present. The ordinary routine of business having been disposed of, a memorial to the United General Conference, moved by Dr.
Towler, of Wingham, seconded by Rev.
G. H. Cornish, was carried, asking that the children's fund be so modified as to more fully meet the end for which it was designed, and be made more acceptable to our people. Also a memorial to the adjourned General Conference of our church, moved by A. S. Fisher, seconded by Rev. D. Clappison, of Bruceville, was carried, praying that the "Basis of Union" be adopted without amendment. Out of fifteen circuits there is now but one mission on the Goderich district. About 30 years ago, all the county of Huron, at that time settled, belonged to the then Goderich mission, and the labor, as missionary, of the present district of this district, extended over this large field, and many of the old settlers in the vicinity of Clinton well remembered him as an earnest and successful laborer in the Master's vineyard. His long experience as chairman, his genial and uniform kind disposition, together with business tact and knowledge, admirably qualify him for a presiding officer.

Darlington.
Two bicyclists from Lucknow visited our village Sunday last.

B. J. Crawford had added a fine iron fence to his already beautiful place.

D. S. Munro, our head teacher, has been re-engaged for the ensuing year.

Mr. Johnston, teacher in what is known as Findlay's school, has also been re-engaged.

Miss Blair, of Manchester, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. D. E.
Munro.

Mrs. Wilson, of this village, is at present enjoying a visit among her friends in Mexico, N.Y.

Miss Millie Caswell, of Toronto, is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J.
Trelaven, of Ashfield.

Miss Jeanie Wilson, who has been the guest of Mrs. B. J. Crawford for some time past, has returned to her home in London.

Mr. B. J. Crawford of this village, who is something of a dog-fancier, is the happy possessor of a fine English setter-dog.
