

TOWN TOPICS.

A child's among you, taking notes,
As faith he'll print it.

Stewart's photos still take the lead; he is producing some of the finest work that has ever been shown in this section.

These light coats and vests are the neatest and latest things out. F. & A. Priddy are making a specialty of this line of goods, and are giving satisfaction.

FINE TAILORING.—Just arrived, Royal Rife Green Irish Serge. The newest goods in the market. Take a look at them. Nobly and cheap. B. MacCormack.

EXCHANGE ROOMS.—Mal. McGillivray, of the New Cash Grocery, on North street and Square, sells first-class goods, lower in price than any in the trade. Fact!

The lithograph of Donald Dinale in the Caledonian bills is a fine work of art, but for first-class photographs R. Saloway still keeps up at the head of the procession.

At the Cash Store you can buy a nice lot of comb honey 12½ cts. each per box. A nice fresh lot of tomatoes in cans cheap, warranted. Good meats and teas a specialty. G. H. Old, the grocery store.

A cable order for 3,500 Karn organs shows that it is leading the van at the International. Saunders & Son are the agents for Goderich. If you want to purchase an organ or piano, consult them and save money. A fine lot of selling direct from Paris. The Cheapest House under the Sun.

John McLaren, of Lansing, Mich., is visiting relatives in Salford.

We regret to learn that Prof. dePeud. ry is laid up by a severe illness.

H. E. Rothwell left by the United Empire for Winnipeg on Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. Hayhurst and children, of Palmerston, are the guests of Mrs. S. Platt.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tanner gave Goderich a call last week on their return from Winnipeg.

Read the advertisement of the Saginaw Valley steamer. Further particulars next week.

John McGowan, of Colborne, has purchased Jonathan Smith's grocery business in Blyth.

A large quantity of interesting correspondence has been unavoidably crowded out this week.

Miss Etta Crane, who has been visiting in the States the past few months, returned home last week.

Miss Merens, of San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Gibson, of St. Louis, are the guests of Captain Gibson.

Mrs. John Yanstater, of Stratford, accompanied by her daughter, paid a visit to her son here during the past week.

The members of North street Methodist church are requested to meet in the church for practice Saturday evening.

Hamilton Wyle, of the London conference, a former student of the Goderich High School, is the guest of George Cox.

Mrs. Adams, wife of Dr. Adams, of Embury, with her little son, is spending a few weeks in town with her sisters, the Misses McKay.

Mrs. W. H. Ellis, of Toronto, an old friend of Mrs. Wm. Cox, spent a few days in town this week at the British Exchange Hotel.

The schooner North Star with a cargo of lumber for Secord & Co., reached port on Thursday evening and unloaded at the firm's dock.

The Ashfield R. C. picnic on Saturday, June 26th, is attracting considerable attention, and a big turnout of Goderich people is probable.

Mrs. E. M. Cowan, of Exeter, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Gavin Struthers. Her husband is studying medicine in Europe.

The schooner Gibraltar reached this port on Sunday and after taking on a cargo of salt on Monday and Tuesday sailed for the Georgian Bay.

Dr. Hamilton, formerly of Goderich, is recuperating at his old home, being a little run down in health. Huron's breezes are found to be invigorating.

We understand that Robt. Routledge, formerly of Goderich, will leave for the old country shortly, where he purposes going into business on his own account.

The schooner Carter, Captain D. McLeod, arrived during Thursday night with a cargo of lumber for the G. T. dock. The Carter left again on Friday evening.

Messrs. Gray, Young & Sparling, salt manufacturers of Blyth, are putting in a new kiln for making salt. The kiln was purchased from Chrystal & Black, Goderich.

The management of Knox church S.S. are arranging for a grand strawberry festival, to be held on Friday evening next, June 25th. Proceeds in aid of the S. S. organ fund.

A temperance mass meeting will be held at Smith's hall next week, which will be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Johnston, Salton and Webster, of Goderich. For particulars see bills.

W. N. Blackley will (D. V.) again preach the "Gospel of God" on Lord's Day evening next in the meeting room over Ridley's store at seven o'clock. All are affectionately invited.

Dr. M. Nicholson, the West street dentist, makes the preservation of the natural teeth a specialty. Gas administered from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the painless extraction of teeth.

A. J. Manger, bookkeeper of the harbor mills, is on a holiday trip to New York. He will likely return next week. Mrs. Manger and the children are visiting the old home at Paisley.

Mrs. Will, McKoy, (Maud Moorehouse) of Pinnington, Mich., is spending a portion of the summer week under the parental roof at Bayfield, and is also visiting old scenes and old friends in and around Goderich.

J. S. Macdougall, the affable division court clerk, brought in a couple of delicious strawberries Thursday that were fully as large as ripe peaches. Large strawberries and big potatoes are always in Mr. Macdougall's line.

John Hunter, of the Huron Road, had two sons married recently. One, William, at Virden, Man., to Miss Anne Deane, and at Goderich, John, jr., to Miss Jane Kerr, daughter of a former popular grocer of Goderich.

TOURS IN ENGLAND, IRELAND AND SCOTLAND.—From the office of the Anchor Line Steamship Co., we have received a very handy and beautifully illustrated book of tours, which we would impress upon all visitors to Europe to apply to their local agents for. The workmanship is first class and the information reliable.

J. Aikenhead V.S. has just returned from Delaware, where he has been visiting relatives during the past month. He reports that the prohibition movement is not there, and that the State ticket will be run on that issue this fall.

We are glad to learn that Joseph Barry, son of George Barry, who returned home from Woodstock very ill several weeks ago, is able to be about again. Joe is a good young man, and much esteemed by all who know him.

There will be a very large number of entries for piping and dancing at the Goderich Caledonian games on Dominion Day, judging from the letters coming from those who desire to enter for prizes. "Dinna ye hear the slogan?"

W. N. Blackley, an evangelist, preached in the meeting rooms over Ridley's store on Sunday evening. There was a fair attendance. Mr. Blackley spends a good deal of the summer in Goderich, which is a favorite resort with him.

The Stratford Age in its account of the Caledonian games in that town says: "D. M. Sullivan gave an exhibition of his dexterity by jumping over a horse 17 hands high, using dumb bells." Mr. Sullivan will repeat this feat in Goderich on the 1st of July.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A temperance convention will be held in Clinton, on Friday next at 10 a. m. We hope Goderich, Colborne and Ashfield will be fairly represented. Let the temperance men turn out strongly. All supporters of the Scott Act are invited to attend.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—A strawberry festival will be held this (Friday) evening under the auspices of the young people of Victoria street church. In addition to strawberries and cream there will be a very entertaining program. To commence at 8 o'clock; admission 15c.

CHANCE OF TIME TABLE.—The G. T. R. afternoon mail train now reaches here at 2.45, which gives much satisfaction to the business public. The time is likely to be placed at 2.30 shortly, which will give still further satisfaction. We are glad to see the G. T. R. bringing the daily papers along at a reasonable time.

Walter McDougall, carpenter, of Hensall, was charged by W. H. Reynolds, of the same place with the larceny of a jack plane and other tools. The case was tried before Judge Toms on Tuesday, but as there was nothing to show that the prisoner intended theft, he was discharged, with a caution not to borrow his employers' tools again without permission.

R. C. FIONN IN HULLITT.—A picnic under the auspices of the ladies of the Hullett Catholic church will be held in the shady grove of Owen Flynn, Hullitt, on Wednesday next. As Father Waters, of Goderich, is also pastor of the Hullett church, the people of this town will be pleased to see it a success. No effort will be spared to make visitors happy. Remember the date.

The following from the Saginaw News refers to a young lady well known in Goderich: "Miss Minnie Wilson, for the past nine months the teacher of the district school in Saginaw Town, left Saturday for her home in Goderich, Ont. Miss Wilson has been very successful and satisfactory to the people of this district in her work, and carries a high recommendation from the district board."

Lightning struck the residence of Ira Lewis, county crown attorney, on Wednesday of last week. There were four friends visiting the house, and the ladies were much alarmed. The lights were extinguished by the electric fluid, but happily no other injury was done. A quiet game of cards, no stakes, between the Crown Attorney and the County Treasurer, was interrupted by the shock, and left unfinished.

The organ recital in Knox church on Monday evening was well attended, considering the short notice. Prof. Clarke appears to be a thoroughly trained organist, and he brought out the resources of the instrument in a way that pleased the audience. He had subscribed towards its purchase. The evening was very warm, nevertheless the performance was much appreciated. Mr. Belcher sang a bass solo during the evening.

GIVING UP BUSINESS IN GODERICH.—W. H. Ridley announces that he is giving up business in Goderich. He has made arrangements to remove to Paris, Ont., in a month or two, and in the meantime he will clear off his stock at a perfect slaughter rate. The earliest comers will, of course, get the best bargains. Ridley is in dead earnest, and the clearing sale is genuine. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen as Mr. Ridley.

CANADIAN HANDBOOK.—We are in receipt of the "Canadian Handbook" from the department of Agriculture, Ottawa. It deals very fully with Canada at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, and goes largely into the history, production and natural resources of the Dominion. It has been prepared under direction of Hon. John Carling, minister of Agriculture for Canada, and is a valuable compendium of useful information.

THE PARK HOUSE, Goderich, is a hotel especially adapted for the comfort and convenience of tourists, being situated at the west end, adjoining the lake pleasure grounds from which a splendid view of the lake can be had. We spent a week at this hotel together with 40 other delegates to conference, and all of whom were so pleased with the treatment received, that they passed a unanimous resolution of thanks to Mr. Doyle, proprietor, for his attention and hospitality. —[Markdale Standard.]

PULLMAN & CO.'S WORLD OF WONDER.—Our readers will bear in mind that it is not our custom to over-praise public entertainments, but when we see a really good one, we deem it only just to say so. We can and do, therefore, pronounce the Pullman & Co. Combination which exhibited here yesterday the best of its kind that we have ever attended.

It was managed with courtesy and honesty, each feature advertised was presented and a very liberal equivalent returned for the price of admission. The Human Leopard Family and the Electric Lady are certainly among the rarest of living phenomena; the trained horses, dogs and goats wonderful, and the acrobatic performances the best of their kind. How the management can afford to give so much for so little money is a problem—and all who try to solve it will find it a pleasant one. —[St. Thomas Journal.]

Our volunteers have been drilling during the past week or two, getting ready for the London heights on June 22nd, and will comprise the following volunteer corps from No. 1 military district:—London field battery, Twenty-First battalion of Essex, Twenty-Sixth battalion of Middlesex, Twenty-Seventh battalion of Lambton, Twenty-Ninth battalion of Waterloo, Thirty-Second battalion of Bruce, Thirty-Third battalion of Huron. The Goderich company will have a lot of recruits.

HYMENEAL.—At St. Peter's church, Goderich, on Wednesday, June 9th, by Rev. B. J. Watters, Patrick Austin, of Ashfield, was married to Miss Aggie, youngest daughter of Mr. James Young, of Goderich. The bride wore a handsome dress of bronze green surah satin, with hat to match, trimmed with rich yellow plumes. She was assisted by her niece, Miss Christina Young, of Ashfield, aided by her brother, Mr. Austin. After luncheon at the Park House the happy couple left for Toronto on their wedding trip.

At the regular meeting of the H. S. L. S. last Friday evening, nominations were made for the various offices in connection with the following:—Solo, Mr. S. P. Hall, B. A.; reading, Mr. Struthers; solo, Mr. Heddle; recitation, Mr. Young; quartette, Misses Ellard and Heddle, and Messrs. A. Moore, B. A., and Heddle; reading, Mr. Strong; chorus, the members. At the conclusion of the literary portion Mr. S. P. Hall's experiments with the electric battery to the great amusement of all present.

From a letter, dated May 24th, and written by Hugh Montgomery, late of that city, we learn that the late John Campbell, of the late John Campbell, and mother of the Rev. T. M. Campbell, died here, and the residence of her son, on Wednesday the 9th June, at 5:30 a. m.

The deceased was born in the county Fermanagh, Ireland, on February 13th, 1818, and was therefore at the time of her death 71 years and 4 months. She was brought to this country at 8 years of age, with her family, who settled on the bank of the Ottawa river near the village of L'Orignal. Her mother was a lady of education and refinement, who, while she was a young girl, was educated at the fireside, a good English education.

Mrs. C. from her childhood was a diligent reader, and besides the library of home read many borrowed books, as that her mind was well stored with information at an early day. This habit of reading was kept up through all the years of her life, and even into the days of her last sickness.

Mrs. C.'s Christian life began with her conversion at six years of age, when according to her own testimony, she clearly and consciously received pardon of sin. At about 20 years of age her life became more fully devoted to God, and enriched with an experience that gave power to her words and made her labors fruitful. Her whole Christian life was one of rare excellence, and those who knew her only through her stay in Goderich will bear witness to the sweetness, gentleness, and spiritual power of her personal life.

Mrs. C. leaves nine children, six daughters and three sons, two of whom are in the Methodist ministry, and the other J. J. Campbell, of Michigan, was a lay delegate to the last conference of that State. Of her five sons-in-law, one is in the ministry (Toronto conference), and the rest are all lay officers in the Methodist church. She was often heard to praise God that all her children were converted under 15 years of age, and always looked forward in faith to a useful life for each of her children. That faith has been rewarded.

About 22 years ago the great sorrow of her life fell upon her, when a loving and devoted Christian husband was taken away. Since then she has leaned upon the arms of her sons and with a sublime confidence upon the arm of God. Her memory will long be fragrant in Goderich, and among the Methodists of Ontario.

Her remains were interred in the Guelph cemetery on Friday.

Paramount.—Miss Nellie Goble, of Wingham, is spending a couple of weeks with her cousin, Martha Clarke.

Robt. Pickering is at present enjoying the health giving breezes of the North-west.

Blacksmith Gordon is ahead of all other competitors in the early potato line. You would almost imagine he was weeding new tops on them they are so long.

Martha Murdoch is taking in the delightful scenery of the sunny south down at Belfast.

Emma Belcher, an old resident, was re-visiting the scenes of her childhood this week.

Statute labor is the principal work of our citizens this week, John Clarke, though small of stature, makes a good pathmaster, and in order to keep his men under stricter discipline warned out only part of them the first day.

The Murdoch Bros. have completed the stone foundation of the McLeod mid's barn. Alex's better-half will find it more congenial next winter when pailing the cows.

FIRE.—About 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 2d, the residence of Mr. Tension caught fire, but by hard work was apparently put out. The fire broke out in the kitchen, and had been eating away in the house for about 12 o'clock the same night when the family were in bed the fire broke out with greater fury than ever. The neighbors were alarmed and gathered as quickly as possible, but found it impossible to save the house. They got out all the furniture they could, and then turned their attention to saving the school which was hardly two rods from the burning house. The large crowd which had by this time gathered worked with a will and although the school caught on by pirates, and on one time fought them and beat them off. His ship, the Canopus, had the honor of being the vessel which brought the first cargo of tea from Shanghai after that port was made free in 1845. He afterwards spent some years in the South American and Brazil trade. While in command of the ship Indus, in 1848, crossing the Bay of Biscay, he saw one night a reflection in the sky which came from the burning steamer Amazon of the Royal West India Mail Co., but being becalmed was unable to ascertain the cause or go to her assistance. He left the sea in 1856, and came to Canada and settled in Toronto. He invested his savings in oil lands at Petrolia when oil was just discovered there, but owing to the rascality of some whom he trusted he lost nearly all his money. He then went into the hotel business in Toronto, and continued in it ten years. He came to Goderich in 1870 and bought out the Huron Hotel, then kept by J. J. Wright. This hotel was burned in November, 1871. The Captain then bought out the British Exchange from J. Calloway in May, 1872, which he kept until October last, when he retired on account of failing health in favor of his son, the present proprietor. For some years previous to his demise he suffered severely from sciatica in the hip caused by an accident, which so weakened him that heart disease was superinduced. For six months before his death he had lost the use of his both legs and had to be carried about by his sons. His wife and son were unremitting in their attentions to him to the last. His end was a peaceful and a triumphant one, for trust in Christ had robbed death of its sting and gave it the victory. In the words of one who knew him well:—"His death was a happy release from suffering. His weary long watch is at last over, and he has gone to rest until the last great muster when he shall answer to the call of "All Hands."

The Late Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Margaret Cross Campbell, widow of the late John Campbell, died here, and the residence of her son, on Wednesday the 9th June, at 5:30 a. m.

fire once, was soon got under subjection, but not until every movable article, even to the blinds, were removed, was the danger thought to be over. Mr. Tension's property was insured, but he will still lose considerable.

It is our painful duty to record the death of Janie Agnew, who died at her home on Friday, June 4th, at the early age of 22 years. More than seven months ago she contracted a consumption which at last carried her off. Janie was a favorite with all who knew her, and up to the very last had a cheerful and pleasant smile for the many friends who called to see her. During her long illness she seemed happy in the bright thought of forever resting in the arms of her blessed Saviour. When spoken to about the gloominess of death she said she could see no gloom and was only passing on a little while before. The whole community mourn her loss; but while we miss her welcome on earth, we rejoice in a more blessed welcome to be received from her in heaven. Her funeral, which took place on Monday last, was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. About 80 brothers and sisters of Dewdrop Council, of which she has long been a member, assisted at the burial. Her funeral sermon will be preached in Hope Church, by Rev. Mr. Moss, on Sunday morning next at half-past 10 o'clock.
