THE DEUTSCHLAND'S DAMAGES.

NEW LONDON, To-day.
An examination of the Deutschland's bow to-day showed three plates being stove in to a degree described by some as a hole, by others as a dent. The stem was twisted to starboard but the general structure of the submarine was said to be firmly in place.

CHASING SHADOWS.

NEW YORK, To-day.
The European nations now at war are expected to send important papers on the subject of maintaining a future peace with the world to be read at an international dinner to be held at New York on November 24 under the auspices of the League to enforce peace.
It was announced last night. The subject to be considered will be a programme for the permanent league of the nations to become effective at the close of the present war. Premier Borden, of Canada, will deliver an address, as will also Wm. J. Stone, Chairman of the Senate of the Committee of Foreign Relations. William H. Taft, President of the League, will preside.

THE POLISH JEWS NOW.

BERLIN, To-day.
General von Beseler, Governor General of Russian Poland, has issued an order at Warsaw with regard to the organization of the Jewish religious body in Poland by which self-government is given to the Polish Jews.

LORD CECIL ON DEPORTATIONS.

LONDON, To-day.
In a statement made to the Associated Press yesterday, Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of War Trade, uttered a vigorous protest against the German's deportation of Belgians and declared the people of France and England, no less than the people of Belgium, hoped that American public opinion will show itself, not only in a few short days or weeks of protests and criticisms, but in a steady pressure upon the invaders of Belgium, to conduct war against the soldiers of the Allies in the trenches and not against the helpless civilians whom they have in their power. Lord Robert reviewed the measures taken by the Entente Allies to provide relief for the Belgians and characterized as a lie what he termed Germany's attempt to justify its action by saying that England was responsible for unemployment in Belgium.

WAR REVIEW.

LONDON, To-day.
In West Wallachia the advance of the Austro-Hungarians continues steadily. Campaigning, eighty miles northwest of Bucharest, the Roumanian capital is within the grasp of the invaders. A battle is taking place within a few miles of Campulung, which is at the head of the railway along the river which penetrates the plains west of Bucharest. Petrograd says the forces of General von Pal-kenhain have taken the town of Li-vent about five miles northwest of Campulung. An attack against the Rumanian position at Albecchi, less than three miles northwest of Campulung, was repulsed. More than 2,100 prisoners were taken by the Austro-Hungarians in the latest operations in Wallachia, 1,500 alone being captured in engagements south of the Rothenburg Pass, and toward Rimnik, west of Predal, the invaders, Berlin says, broke the Rumanian position. Rungul, a mountain in Moldavia, east of Kofasvashely has been captured by Bavarian troops. The town of Parakil on the right bank of the Struma River and the eastern side of the Macedonian front has been occupied by the British. On the western Macedonian front in the Monastir region Berlin reports all attacks of the Entente forces were repulsed. The Franco-Serbian offensive in the region of the Cerna River, Paris states, continues with success. Several positions were occupied by the Entente forces and the Bulgar-German attacks repulsed. The Franco-Serbians captured 400 prisoners on Nov. 15th, Paris adds.
Little activity is reported on the Somme front, the two latest officials from Paris report no infantry activity.
London claims an extension of the British front along the Ancre east of Beaucourt. Berlin records the repulse of British attacks on the northern part of the front. Except for the capture by the Russians of several heights near Jacobeni west of Kimpolung in Buko-lina, neither Petrograd nor Berlin report any great activity on the eastern front. In Dobruja apparently there has been little fighting. Berlin states that Rumanian artillery fire has been heard in the region of Silistria on the Danube below Tchernavoda has increased.

NORWEGIAN PASSENGER BOAT SUNK.

KRISTINA, To-day.
The Norwegian passenger and mail steamer Vega, Bergen, a vessel of about 1023 tons, was sunk yesterday by a German submarine. Sixteen passengers and the crew of 32 men who put off from the steamer in five boats were saved by the motor ship Columbia and landed at Stavenger last evening. The registered mail on board the Vega was saved by the mail clerk.

ROUMANIAN REPORT.

BUCHAREST, To-day.
A Rumanian War Office statement issued yesterday follows: In the Parahova Valley there have been violent actions by the enemy artillery and infantry, chiefly on the left bank of the River. We repulsed these attacks and maintained our positions in the region of Dragoslavl. The enemy attacked with violence in the course of the day and night, reaching some points by the use of the bayonet, but he has been everywhere repulsed with heavy losses. In the Alt Valley the enemy again attacked violently and obliged us to retire in the direction of Tencinesti. At Juli we have withdrawn slightly in the direction of Stefanesti. We attacked the forces of General von Pal-kenhain and repulsed the enemy with severe losses to him. There has been feeble artillery actions along the Cerna and North of Orsova on the south front along the Danube. There have been artillery and infantry duels; our artillery effectively bombarded Tusichuk.

MORE SHIPS SUNK.

LONDON, To-day.
Lloyds announce the Italian steamer San Giovanni, supposed to be sunk, 1260 tons gross. The steamers Styli-an Bebis, 3603 tons and the Ioannic, 2328 tons, were sunk by a submarine.
The agency also announces the Danish steamer Therese, 332 tons, the British steamer Trovarrak, 2998 tons sunk.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN ARCH-ANGEL.

BERLIN, To-day.
Seven ammunition steamers were recently blown up in the harbour of Archangel, according to a Russian newspaper published in Archangel. says an Overseas News Agency, which quotes the newspaper as saying, "This evening Archangel was terrified by an appalling noise. It seemed the whole port was in flames. At 6.15 p.m. seven ammunition steamers were arrived in the morning were blown up. Iron fragments of ships fell 700 yards away.
The port for several minutes resembled a burning volcano. Pieces of glowing iron fell in all parts, and establishments were endangered (detected by Russian Censor). These 37 storehouses were razed. The damage is established at (suppressed by Censor) million rubles, according to the latest statements (number suppressed by Censor). Corpses found, number seven hundred and sixty-three. Several injured persons were taken to hospitals. However the number of victims will be considerably larger when the ground has been cleared. Access to the port district continues to be forbidden.
A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Stockholm, which is dated Nov. 16, is quoted in a Stockholm newspaper as saying that the Russian ammunition steamer Beceni was blown up in the harbor of Archangel, causing the death of 150 persons and wounding 550.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

LONDON, To-day.
An official issued by the British War Office to-night re the fighting in France, follows:—"On our new front north of the Ancre there is nothing to report except intermittent enemy shelling especially in the neighborhood of Beaucourt. Prisoners taken since November 13 have reached a total of 6,199. To-day we heavily bombarded the enemy trench lines in the vicinity of Loos and Hulluch. Yesterday much successful work was accomplished by our aeroplanes; two important junctions of the enemy's lines of communication were bombarded and railways, barracks, and aerodromes attacked with bombs, and machine gun fire, both night and day. The enemy aircraft showed more enterprise than usual, with the result that three of his machines were brought down on our side of the line and two on his own side.

At least five more were driven to the ground damaged. Three of our machines are missing.

ROUMANIAN RETIRE BEFORE
SUPERIOR FORCES.

LONDON, To-day.
The Rumanian retirement some kilometers south of Tirgu-Jiu, says a Reuter despatch from Bucharest, is due to the continued reinforcement of the enemy and above all to the superiority of the enemy artillery. On the left bank of the Alt, the enemy tried by crossing the mountain range to join hands with the forces operating on the Campulung side, where the German attacks were bloodily repulsed.

SERBIAN SUCCESSES.

SALONIKI, To-day.
A Serbian official to-day says:
"Yesterday there was violent fighting favorable to us despite fog and snowstorm. All the enemy attempts to recapture their lost positions by counter-attacks failed completely. The Bulgarians retired to the River Distritza.
On Hill 1378 we have taken 300 additional prisoners. On the left the Franco-Russian troops advancing on Monastir have occupied the villages Vilushina, Porodin and Jabyani. The prisoners the Serbians alone captured since Nov. 10 aggregate 3,900, including 1,000 Germans. During the same period the Serbians captured eight heavy and sixteen field guns. We have captured since Sept. 14 a total of 71 guns.

CANADIAN ARTILLERIST KILLED.

HAMILTON, Ont., To-day.
Lady Taylor to-day received word that her son, Capt. George Taylor, head of an ammunition column with the 33rd Howitzer Battery in France was killed in action. Capt. Taylor was considered one of the best artillery officers in Canada.

WINTER IN FRANCE.

PARIS, To-day.
The first snow of the season began falling to-day in Paris and also on some parts of the battle front. Freezing weather has replaced the humid rainy season along the whole western fighting area, with the temperature to-day from 5 to 12 degrees below freezing point. A successful raid was made on Ostend and Zeebrugge this morning by British naval air-planes and seaplanes, says an Admiralty announcement. Many bombs were dropped with good results on docks and shipping, the announcement says, and all the machines returned safely.

2.00 P.M.

PARIS, To-day.

A military conference of the generals of the Allied Powers was held at the French Army headquarters on Thursday at the same time that a political conference was being held at Paris. Sir Douglas Haig and General Robertson represented Great Britain; General Gallitzin, Russia; General Porro, Italy; General Ru-deann, Roumania; General Roobitch, Serbia; General Nagai, Japan; Generals Joffre and Castelnau, France.

The Heroic Three

Who Brought the Yacht Vigilant Across the Atlantic.
London, Nov. 12.—The Berelhaven correspondent of the Central News, telegraphs the following remarkable story of the sea:

"One of the most extraordinary voyages has just been completed by the 'Vigilant,' a little American tug, belonging to New York, and bound from St. John's, Nfld., for Cardiff. Two days out from St. John's, which she left a week ago last Sunday, the 'Vigilant' experienced terrific weather, and on the fifth day she sent S. O. S. calls, the captain fearing she would founder.
The Holland-American liner Ryuan-Walsh, an Irishman, and an American fireman, named John Smith.
"Taking control of the ship, these three men overcame tremendous difficulties, and actually succeeded in bringing her within sight of the Irish coast, where they were picked up by a British patrol vessel. Ferguson was locked in the wheelhouse, and the other two in the engine room. The terrible weather prevented them moving, and they remained at their posts for fifty hours, without food, water or sleep. Several parts of the ship were smashed in the gale, including the shaft of the dynamo in the engine room. This caused the tug to be in total darkness by night, and added to the horrors of the situation."

SABLE I. ARRIVES.—The s.s. Sable I. reached port this morning from
