BEATEN WHEN HE FINISHED BADLY.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—Jack Cor. Omaha, Neb., negro heavyweight, was given the decision over "Siki," the Senegalese pugilist, in a ten-round bout here yesterday.

"Siki," who apparently was not in the condition, fought the fight on the first five rounds and there numerous stiff mis-ups in which he was punched by Siki's lack of condition began to show and he was forced to hold himself during the remainder of the contest.

When Siki started to slow up, he took the offensive, hitting the Senegalese boxer hard and often, and the end of the bout one of Siki's was closed and blood was flowing from his mouth and nose. Taylor beat 100 and Siki 77.

The semi-wind-up, Young Kid, of Bridgeport, Conn., won the best decision over Pedro Campino, in a hard ten-round bout.

Harbor Grace Notes.

The Christmas Tree held by the members of the Cathedral Congregation opened on St. Stephen's afternoon in the Academy Hall and continued on Thursday and Friday evenings.

The Hall was nicely decorated for the occasion. Candy and ice cream was on sale and an immense Christmas Tree was in evidence. The wheel of fortune created much interest and was kept pretty busy. Dainty teas were served, and the whole affair was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number who attended. We understand the total proceeds amounted to the sum of ten hundred and thirty dollars. Dancing was indulged in at the close, on Friday evening.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Fitzgerald, widow of Mr. William C. Fitzgerald, occurred suddenly on Saturday, 22nd, at the home of her son, Thomas, with whom she resided. Deceased was in her 84th year. She had been enjoying fairly good health all along, but the end came almost suddenly on the day above mentioned.

Another son, William, of this town and one daughter, Emmeline, in Montreal, are left to mourn. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, the services being conducted by the Rev. W. R. J. Higgin. To the bereaved family we tender sympathy.

Mr. F. McRae, who had been undergoing treatment at St. John's, is now back to town again.

Misses M. Noseworthy, V. Elworthy and Mr. C. Noseworthy, who are working in the city, spent Christmas Day with their parents and friends here.

Mr. Nath Noel, who is studying at Queen's College, St. John's, is spending the Christmas vacation with his sister, Mrs. W. Crane, and returns to the city again on Friday.

The teachers and pupils of the different day schools are enjoying the usual Christmas holidays. We trust that they will go back to their work with renewed vigour, to take up their task again.

Miss Queenie Hinton, who is attending the Methodist College, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hinton.

Miss Clarice Parsons, who is attending the Normal School at St. John's is spending Christmas at home.

Mr. Samuel Stowe, who is working in the city, arrived home during last week to spend Christmas.

Miss May Thistle, who is attending the Methodist College, St. John's, is spending the Christmas vacation with her uncle, Mr. Thomas Thistle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whiteway of Bay Roberts, were in town last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Parsons.

Mr. Joseph Downing, who has been residing in Halifax for a number of years past, arrived here recently on a visit to his brother, Mr. Uriah Downing.

The members of the Men's Mutual Improvement Association held a Social on Friday evening last at Coughlin Hall, to which were invited their lady friends. This association was formed some weeks ago, and has for its organizer, Mr. H. Hinton, Superintendent of the Imperial Cable Co. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and everywhere could be seen a touch of the festive season. Just inside the entrance was very artistically written the words, "Yule Tide Greetings." A Christmas Tree was standing in the centre of the stage, which contained a package for each person holding corresponding numbers, and was distributed during the evening. A very nice programme was gone through, consisting of songs, duets, recitations, instrumental selections, etc., etc. games were played and a very pleasant social hour was spent. Refreshments were served near the close, after which a vote of thanks was given to the members of the association. The ladies joined in singing, "For they are jolly good fellows," which was responded to by the male voices. in the same chorus. "Auld Lang Syne" was then heartily sung by all, and "God Save the King" concluded a very delightful evening for the gathering. This association means much to our young men and Mr. Hinton is to be congratulated on the good work that he is doing. We trust that the New Year will find its numbers increasing, and its work progressing.

Your correspondent takes this opportunity of tendering to the Editor, the Staff of Workers, and numerous readers of The "Evening Telegram," best wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Beautiful Production at the Crescent

Appropriate Theme in "Women Men Marry."

New Year's Day was admirably celebrated at the Crescent Theatre; three sessions were run commencing at 10 a.m. The picture entitled "Women Men Marry" proved an ideal box-office attraction.

It is one of those artfully designed productions that triumphantly carries out its purpose, which is to give the public a type of entertainment for which it has shown a decided liking. The theme and the style of production are in popular favour.

A study in social values underlies the story of the picture. The conflict between snobbery and a spirit of democracy stirs up considerable interest and the old picturesque contrast of the rich girl and the poor man is used effectively. The heroine goes out to marry a title and falls in love with the ship's steward.

The nature of the story brings into prominence the splendor of the material appointments. It is a society drama with all the glamor that so widely appeals. All this is emphasized in the ultra-sophisticated atmosphere of the earlier part of the picture, which is not too long, while the point of the story in showing the survival of real love dominates the rest of the action.

On Friday night, the usual big Amateur Contest will be held when another enjoyable entertainment is anticipated.

Majestic Bill a Hummer

"The Little Minister" A Splendid Production.

The screen favorite, Betty Compson, is seen at her best in Barrie's ever popular story "The Little Minister" which is shown at the Majestic to-day. Yesterday large audiences were delighted with the New Year's programme which, according to bookings, is the commencement of a series of features to be exhibited at the Majestic from now on. The musical team Paul Jacobson and John Bass were to say the least, extravagant in their offerings which called for continuous applause. Their repertoires included many of the latest hits from New York and other large American cities where they were headliners. The splendid combination of first class music, songs and wit which they present is pleasing to all. To-night the same bill will be repeated. "The Little Minister" in itself a super photo play that won the highest recommendations of the art critics in America, and is at present booked in the largest theatres where first prices are greater than that asked for reputable operas, and other notable attractions which run for months without interruption.

And He Never Missed a Meal

"Please give me a drink and some food." No, this is not the plaintive plea of some unfortunate street arab, nor the piteous appeal of one bereft of pride, but a sign, posted on a crate in which was contained a huge Newfoundland dog, by some kind thoughtful lover of man's great friend, lest it should be forgotten. This was the scene confronted at Farquhar's wharf yesterday afternoon.

Immediate enquiries were made to ascertain if any provisions were to be gotten on the wharf for the dog, but quick assurances were received that this dog was receiving every possible attention.

The crate containing the canine was unloaded yesterday morning from Farquhar's steamer, Sabie "L," from St. John's, and is consigned to J. H. Edwards, high sheriff of Annapolis county. It is a massive animal, quiet and willing to make friends with anyone who went to its cage to tend it. The dog is a magnificent specimen of a famous breed, possibly the greatest friends that man has ever had.—Halifax Mail, Dec. 27.
