PROMINENT SUPPORTERS OF ZAGLOUL ARRESTED.

LONDON, Nov. 27. The British authorities in Cairo have taken into their own hands drastic measures to suppress possible nationalist plotting by the arrest of four prominent members of the party organization headed by former Premier Zaguoul Pasha. Those arrested were Nekrasby Bey, a secretary in the Ministry of the Interior in Zaglou's cabinet, Abdul Fahmy, one of Zaglou's closest political assistants, William Obeld, a prominent coptic member of the Nationalist delegation, and Barakat Pasha, who was Zaglou's Minister of the Interior.

STORM SWEEPS SOUTH COAST OF ENGLAND.

LONDON, Nov. 27. Much damage was done to-day by a gale which swept both the East and South Coasts of England and inland points. Seventeen persons were drowned when the freight steamer Hartley, a vessel of 2000 tons, sank off Portland. Only two men of the crew were rescued. There were many minor casualties to coastwise shipping. The Channel steamer Dieppe grounded at the mouth of New Haven Harbor, and a tug which attempted to rescue her was smashed against the breakwater. The Dieppe was refloated after her sixty-six passengers from France had spent five hours on board. The cruiser Caliope was sent from Portland to assist vessels in distress in the English Channel. At Southampton the Royal Mail steamer Almazora, of the Buenos Aires service, broke from her moorings and swung about dangerously. She narrowly escaped smashing a naval transport. The vessel eventually was warped into her berth again after three hours of hard work by tugs. The Southampton pilots who took the steamer Vandal of port were unable to leave the vessel out side the harbor and were carried on to Plymouth and landed there.

O'Mara Scores Big Hit

AT MAJESTIC LAST NIGHT.

The new show that opened at the Majestic for a three day's run went far beyond the expectations of the audience present. Two wonderful artists, singing a splendid programme of songs in which their art was expressed to a degree of beauty in conjunction with a picture that is fascinating. This picture holds the audience spellbound with its thrills and marvelous scenes and situations. Cameo Kirby starring John Gilbert, is an American story of the aristocratic old South land. The setting in this period produces a love story with a great plot that unfolds a dramatic climax that will hold you and cause many a thrill. The costumes worn in this picture are quaint and beautiful. This production concludes one of the best shows shown in St. John's for some time, and the way the audience received Emmett O'Mara's singing of Tosti's immortal "Good-bye" also the song "Dearest" as sung by Jeanne Palowa proves beyond a doubt that St. John's people are lovers of only the best of music.

Majestic patrons are already advised of the two exceptionally strong features to be shown within the next two weeks. In all probability, "Alimony" will be exhibited on Monday next, and the following week, you will likely see "If Winter Comes," a 12 reel super-special. To-morrow, more particulars as to "Alimony" will be given. Same show as last night will be repeated to-night, to-morrow afternoon and night.
