

How to Provide for Emigrants.

In last Friday's issue we mentioned the fact that many emigrants, on their arrival in Canada, were at a loss as to employment, and not being acquainted with the ways and wants of the country, are often brought to a very destitute condition.

The Intercolonial Railroad and other public works will furnish labor for many an emigrant, and there is another and more enduring source of employment which could be made more beneficial to hundreds of men than it now is.

John A. Looking Ahead.

The Hamilton Times says that Sir John A. Macdonald declared, not long since, during a general conversation with some friends, that he owed all his political success to the fact that he always kept the immediate object of his ambition steadily and constantly in view.

THE INCREASE OF GOLD.

A valuable article on the Gold Question, by Victor Bossuet, appears in the Revue Des Deux Mondes. It argues that the mines of California and Australia have increased the aggregate gold supply of the world by 20 per cent.

Billiard Match.—The match between Dion of Montreal and Foster of New York, for $2,000, came off at Montreal last night (Thursday) and resulted in the victory of Dion, who won by 80 points.

Mazzini is now lying dangerously ill from disease of the heart, at a villa near Lugano, in the Swiss Canton of Tessin, where he is tenderly cared for by his admiring and devoted friend, Mrs. Nathan, the widow of a rich English Jew.

It appears that the members of the Carleton County Council indulge in tobacco when in discharge of their public duty at the Council Board, and the Ottawa Citizen gives them a gentle hint that "short pipes of brier and clay" are not the most ornamental or useful articles at these meetings.

If a man wants a bottle of whiskey, let him buy it and take it home like a man, and not sneak home with a bottle of "Bitters" or "Cordial," and pretend that it is medicine.
