

Practical Eloquence.
An Illinois legislator recently delivered the following speech in the House of that State:—
"Mr. Speaker: I am opposed to this bill, and I am coming down on it like a June bug on a potato vine. I have come to pronounce its ecology as Mark Antony did over Cleopatra. I am a laboring man myself, and I know what laborers want, and I know that they don't want any such thing as this. I've been in chancery, and I know how it is myself. After hanging in chancery till the lawyers got my bottom dollar, I got my case before twelve honest farmers, and I knocked the socks off my antagonist just like falling off a log. Now, here's King coming in here with this Bill to help out the legal fraternity and put every man in Cook county into chancery. I ain't nothing against my friend King, but I want to tell him right here that my name's Jack, and that a King ain't never did, and never will take a fact. Look at this section here, providing for masters in chancery—masters in chancery—yes, we'll have them in Chicago thicker than fleas on a dog, to eat our substance and get fat on our misfortunes. I call upon the hard fast economy on the Democratic side of this House to nip this thing in the bud—we don't want it and we won't have it. We have got along so far without it, and we can borrow all the money we want and sell all the property we've got without going into chancery to do it. Now, Mr. Speaker, though Nero fiddled when Rome was burning, and I've never played seven up on his wife's coffin—that is no reason why our people should be gobbled up in a chancery hopper, after they have been burned out, and ground out of what little they have left."

BREAKFAST—EPPE'S COCOA—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).
How are you to-day? I'm not feeling well, bilious and sick headache, have been looking around for a box of Parson's Purgative Pills, but our traders are all sold out.—Country Paper.

READ THE FOLLOWING:
Mrs. Amy Kennedy, of Danville, Ohio, says: "I have suffered with Asthma 24 years, have been treated by many Physicians, as soon as I took the Balsam it relieved me, I cannot express the gratitude I feel for the benefit your Allen's Lung Balsam has been to me."
Dr. Harris, of Middlebury, Vermont, says: "I had been troubled with Bronchitis for two years so affecting the organs of speech that I could not speak about for six weeks, I had with it a severe cough and cold night sweats, I took two bottles of Allen's Lung Balsam, and am entirely cured."
Capt Foster, of Burrell, Ont., says: "I have been troubled with a cough at times very severe for years past, I have found Allen's Lung Balsam to relieve my cough more readily than any other cough medicine I have ever tried. My wife also used it with the most satisfactory results. The Balsam is sold by all druggists. Price 25¢ per bottle."

Too much cannot be said as to their superiority over the ordinary glasses worn—there is no shimmering, wavering of the sight, dizziness, or other unpleasant sensation, but on the contrary, from the peculiar construction of the Lenses, they are soothing and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the vision as in the natural and healthy sight. They are the only spectacles that preserve as well as assist the sight, and are the cheapest because the best, always lasting many years without change being necessary.
