Bradstreet's Weekly Review of the Business Situation in the Dominion. Toronto, Sept. 22 .- Bradstreet's trade review, weekly summary: Colder weather, with a seasonable autumn tinge, has increased the busitreal this week. There has been a brisk movement in retail circles, and the demand from the jobbers for heavy staple goods has been much more satisfac- mate and proper punishment of these Prices, except in a few lines of hardware, are generally steady. There has been more activity in wholesale circles at Toronto as a result of the colder weather. Sales of fall goods have been larger. There has been a very heavy movement in fruit. The grain deliveries are still moderate, and the demand for export is light. In other lines, such as cattle and dairy produce, there is an active movement to the old country markets. Values of staple goods are very firm. Payments from the country are fair for this sea-

Pekin Legations Could Not Have Held Out Much Longer.

British Plans and Instructions Found in Chinese Officers Quarters—Escaped Missionaries Reach London—Dr. Morrison's Protest-Chinese Tangle Not Yet Straightened Out.

New York, Sept. 24 .- Gen. Yama- | they will be dealt with summarily. gutchi has stated in an interview that Pekin was relieved only three days within time to save the legations, says a dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Taku. English plans, with complete instructions regarding guns, were found in Chinese officers' quarters, translated into Chinese.

Twenty thousand Japanese troops

are now at Taku. ESCAPED THE BOXERS.

A French priest has arrived from over the western hills, with 70 Chinese Christians, and guns made from iron bedsteads, the first shots from which killed twenty Boxers. They had held out until twenty days ago.

London, Sept. 24.—The American missionaries, J. H. Roberts, Mark Williams, William Sprague, Mrs. Sprague and Miss Virginia Murdock, who escaped from Kalgan, province of Chi Li, China, were chased across the Gobi Desert. Then they traveled by way of Siberia and have just reached London in good health.

VANDALISM. London, Sept. 24.-Dr. Morrison, the Pekin correspondent of the Times, wiring Sept. 19, protests against what he calls "an unworthy act of vandalism" on the part of Gen. Wilson's expedition, namely, the "attempt to destroy the superb white pagoda in the temple grounds at Pei Ta Chu." Fortunately. says the correspondent, the masonry was too solid.

Dr. Morrison adds: "It is said that the orders sent to M. Pichon (the French minister) to withdraw will be countermanded. Communications are still deplorably bad. Many telegrams are never sent at all, some being destroyed after they have been accepted. Gen. Yung Lu is returning here to assist in the peace negotiations, although the foreign ministers have protested against his participation."

GREAT SLAUGHTER. New York, Sept. 24.-The French gunboat Avalanche found all quiet in the Sun Tai district, says a Herald dispatch from Hong Kong. The disturbance arose through Chinese soldiers plundering a convert's medicine shop. The outbreak spread to every village, and a clean sweep was made of converts' houses and missions. There was a great slaughter of natives, and a Catholic priest was wounded. The cause of the outbreak is attributed to the interference of the church in civil

THE UNITED STATES' POSITION. Washington, Sept. 24.-The state department has made public the text of the notes addressed by it to the governments of Germany, Russia and China, in answer to inquiries them as to the attitude of the United States toward various phases of the Chinese problem. The answer to the German note is phrased so as to soften the unqualified refusal of the United States government to make the punness in fall and winter goods at Mon- ishment of the Chinese ringleaders a condition precedent to negotiations. But it is noted that in the expression of a purpose to insist upon the ultioffenders the state department goes far beyond the German declaration on the subject. The announcement is made that the department intends immediately to begin through Mr. Conger conferences with Ching and Li Hung Chang.

The Russian and Chinese answers are in the form of a diplomatic memoranda, but in both cases are completely responsive and favorable to the in-

"GREATLY REGRETTED."

London, Monday, Sept. 24, 3:30 a.m.-The morning papers are too fully occupied with the general election campaign to bestow much attention upon the Chinese problem. The Standard, which discusses editorially the replies of the United States Government, well employed; wages are good; the says: "The policy thus laid down implies the existence at Washington of a very exaggerated estimate of the goodwill of the Chinese rulers. It to be feared that the action of the United States will tend to weaken the moral influence of the allies, and for this reason it is to be greatly regret-

WON'T RETURN

According to the Pekin correspondent of the Daily News, wiring Sept. 16, the Chinese declare most positively that the empress dowager and the emperor will in no case return to the imperial palace in Pekin, as they hold that it has been desecrated by the intrusion of barbarians. MORE EDICTS.

An imperial edict, dated Sept. 17, deals most leniently with the Boxer movement, and reminds the people that both the Boxers and Chinese Christians are Chinamen, who shall receive imperial protection if they quietly disperse to their homes. The edict the imperial government to distinguish between good and bad Boxers.

Another report asserts that the edict frankly declares that no executions can be sanctioned until an adequate inquiry has been made. PRINCE TUAN. Further indications that Prince Tuan has resumed his former ascendancy are found in the Shanghai reports of his Siang has been appointed generalissimo of the Northern Chinese armies, and Prince Chaung deputy commander-in-chief of the Boxers, has been made a grand councilor.

THE PEI TANG AFFAIR.

According to various accounts of the Pei Tang affair, the Chinese had anticipated that the allies would attack in force. The British and others who left Tien Tsin with the intention of cutting pair, having been at Carlisle, were on off the retreat of the Pei Tang garrison arrived too late. They were only ing through Waterdown, when two men half way to their destination when the in a rig drove up behind them. The forts were captured.
