

Speed and Legibility are both indispensable to a practical system of shorthand. Both are of equal importance. The students of the

F. C. B. C.
(Y. M. C. A., - London, Ont.)
write speedily and can read their notes as easily as print. Students of other systems find it difficult. Are you interested?

J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal.

Both Ladies and Gentlemen
Invited to attend the opening of our handsome new premises, Oddfellows' Block Corner, Natty and Exclusive Styles.
O. LABELLE.

SPECIAL GUN SALE

We have just received a new lot of guns, and are making the following special prices for February:
$9.00 Guns for $8.00
$10.00 Guns for $9.00
$12.00 Guns for $10.00
$14.00 Guns for $12.00
A limited number of these.

If you want a gun this is your opportunity.
BROCK'S GUNSTORE
192 Dundas street, London, Ontario.

W. J. SMITH & SONS
Undertakers and Embalmers,
113 Dundas St., Phone 586. Open day and night. Residence on premises.

Try Aetna Baking Powder.
Manufactured by Marshall Bros. & Co., 7 Dundas street. Rising qualities cannot be surpassed.

Photo Supplies

Everything for the Photographer.
W. A. McKEE
Opposite City Hall, upstairs.

R. K. COWAN,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.,
County Bldg., next Court House, London.

London Conservatory of Music and School of Elocution Now Open. Pupils May Enter at Any Time.
J. T. Stephenson,
The Leading Undertaker.
Importer of the new Eclipsa Couch Casket, and the new Detroit Metallic Casket Company.
104 Dundas Street. Phone 459.

GLASSES CAN'T BE FITTED AS THEY SHOULD BE

Until the exact trouble is known, and the trouble can't be known until the eyes have been examined scientifically. We are experts in this line. Call and see us.

C. H. WALLACE,
Jeweler and Optician,
402 Talbot Street, Opposite City Hotel. Watch work given our best attention.

J. T. Stephenson,
The Leading Undertaker.
Importer of the new Eclipsa Couch Casket, and the new Detroit Metallic Casket Company.
104 Dundas Street. Phone 459.

LONDON GROCERS SAY THAT

Daisy Flour

Is growing quicker in popularity than any other flour sold here. We want you to use it.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Fiftieth Anniversary of a Worthwhile Couple's Wedding Celebrated.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Snettinger, Maple Grove, was recently the scene of a very interesting event, being the 50th anniversary of their wedding day. At 3 o'clock the guests all assembled in the parlor, the grand children presenting Mr. and Mrs. Snettinger with a neatly-worded address, and two Morris chairs. Mr. G. A. Munroe made a suitable reply, and Rev. T. A. Watson, Allen, Ross and James Patterson also made short addresses.

After the presentation all repaired to the dining-room, where a splendid dinner was served. Among these guests were Rev. T. A. and Mrs. Master Watson, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. and Miss MacMurray, of Leeboro; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Munroe, of Embro; Miss A. McKay and Mr. A. Ross.

The many beautiful presents received testify the high esteem in which the couple are held, and all join in wishing them many happy years to come.

THE FLAGGING ENERGIES REVIV-ED.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irritability, and the stomach cannot assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmenter's Vegetable Pills will find a recuperative force of rare power, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression and reviving the flagging energies.

Cutlery Sale.

Every article a Bargain—Space is too small to mention only a few lines—Examine what we offer.

Nevada Silver Teaspoons, now 50c doz.
Rogers' Extra Plate Teaspoons, now 40c half-dozen.
Beaded Dessert Spoons, now 50c half-dozen.
Nevada Silver Dessert Spoons, now 50c half-dozen.
Rogers' Extra Plate Dessert Forks, now $1 75 half-dozen.
Nevada Silver Tablespoons, now $1 half-dozen.
Secure Handle Butter Knives, were 90c, now 20c each.

GURD'S Sign of The Big Gun.
185 Dundas Street.

Thos Wilson

MERCHANT TAILOR,
213 Dundas Street,
Duffield Block. PHONE 596.

FROM ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC
PICTORIAL POSTCARDS.
of the principal cities of the Dominion.

JOHN MILLS' BOOK STORE.
Phone 1055. 398 Richmond Street.

WATCH THIS SPACE
We can fill orders now
COAL
JOHN MANN & SONS,
401 Clarence Street,
425 York Street,
Phone 470.

WRONG ON THE FACE OF IT

A bad way for a watch to act
Take it to
THOS. GILLEAN,
402 Richmond St.

Johnston Bros.' XXX Bread.

MAKE it a point to get Johnston Bros.' XXX Bread. It's the best at all times. Wholesale and retail. Get it at grocers, or call a driver.
JOHNSTON BROS., Phone 518.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Miss Edna Caldwell, of Petrolia, is attending the millinery openings in this city.

Miss Hazel Bradley, pupil of Miss Marie Priest, L. C. M., has successfully passed her primary examination in theory of music, part I, taking honors at the London Conservatory of Music.

—Miss May Armstrong, who was injured at the Clarence street crossing of the G. T. R., is reported as much better today at Victoria Hospital. She slept well last night, and the doctors have every hope that she will recover.

CADETS IN UNIFORM FREE.
Cadets in uniform will be admitted to the St. Andrew's Society concert free tonight, but it cannot be guaranteed that seating accommodation will be furnished.

CLUB MADE MONEY.
The Ladies' Choral Club, the London Male Chorus and choir of the First Methodist Church, the organizations which brought the Pittsburgh Chorus here, will divide the profits of the concert, the division taking place according to the number of tickets sold by each.

TO RENEW CHARTER.
The Toronto News says: The Canadian Co-operative Alliance of London, an organization in the house-buying business, have decided to apply for a renewal of their charter, which was cancelled on Jan. 13.

DEATHS FOR JANUARY.
The Provincial medical health office returns shows the number of deaths in Ontario in January were 2,188, or at the rate of 13 per thousand, as against 2,150 deaths in January of 1903, when the rate was 12.8. There were 102 cases of smallpox, as against 196 a year ago. Scarlet fever cases were 279, as against 500 in January, 1903. The deaths from contagious diseases were: Smallpox, 0; scarlet fever, 24; diphtheria, 56; measles, 2; whooping cough, 7; typhoid, 22; tuberculosis, 187; total, 299.

MR. HYMAN BACK IN OTTAWA.
Hon. C. S. Hyman returned to Ottawa yesterday morning for the first time since his elevation to the ministry. He will probably remain for the important cabinet meetings to be held before the end of the week.

ANNUAL O. S. A. MEETING.
The following were elected officers at the annual meeting of the Ontario Society of Artists, held at Toronto: President, C. M. Manley; vice-president, and treasurer, Gustav Hahn; secretary, R. F. Garen. Pictures No. 14, "The Coming Storm," by J. W. Beatty, and No. 131, "The Day is Done," by F. M. Bell-Smith (formerly of London), were chosen by the society for the Provincial art gallery, in accordance with the Government grant set aside for that purpose.

Tell Your Dealer

to send you Hamilton's A. or Porter. So different, so much better than other kinds, Age, flavor and purity.

KENT BREWERY.

NEW JEWELRY

We are showing the very newest novelties in Small Jewelry. Glad to have them in so early, and would be glad to have you come and see them. You'll be interested in these handsome goods.

THE JEWELLER.
WARD, 374 Richmond Street.

How Much Money

are you going to save this year? Where are you going to deposit it? With

The Canadian Savings & Loan Co.

Assets $2,200,000.00
Reserve $300,000.00
Office—120-122 M. H. ROWLAND, Richmond Street, Manager.

NEW CHURCHES.

The Bishop of London has made the following changes and appointments: Rev. Father Loiseleur from Big Point to be pastor of French Settlement. Rev. Father Prud'homme from French Settlement to be pastor of Big Point. Rev. Father Tobin, formerly assistant to the Dean of Stratford, has been appointed administrator of that parish. It is also announced that the parish of Stratford would be divided, and a second church built for the convenience of the faithful. Vicar General Meunier announced last Sunday in Windsor that the parish of Stratford would be divided and a new church built on a beautiful lot lately selected. He also said that the bishop named Father Tobin to take charge of this important work.

BARBERS WANT EARLY CLOSING.

Mr. L. V. McBrady introduced a deputation of employing barbers to Hon. John Dryden at Toronto yesterday. The barbers desire to come under Mr. Dryden's early closing law, like other trades and businesses. The act provides that where three-fourths of the members of certain trades petition the municipality an hour of closing may be fixed for all shops in that line of business. So far as known no such move is contemplated in London.

FIRE DID $1,300 DAMAGE

Blaze in the Wrey Corset Factory Last Night.

Supposed To Have Been Caused by an Electric Light Wire.

Shortly before 8 o'clock last night Mr. Albert Hunter, of the Wrey Corset Company, was about to enter the factory building on 96 Carling street, when he noticed smoke issuing from the stock room. An alarm was sent in from the Bernard House, and in a couple of minutes the firemen were on the scene. The chemical engine was put to work, but the fire had made too great headway to be checked in this manner, and a half-dozen lines of hose were at once connected with the hydrants. The steamer was also on hand, but its services were not required.

It took the firemen the better part of an hour to subdue the flames, though they worked systematically and to good advantage from all points. In the stock room, which is situated on the ground floor, at the rear of the building, the fire burned fiercely, and the great quantity of water thrown into the room to extinguish the flames damaged all the goods there which were not destroyed by the fire.

It is estimated that the loss of the Wrey Company will amount to about $800 on stock and between $200 and $300 on the building. The loss to Mr. Hunter, who uses a portion of the factory for the manufacture of corset steels, will be nearly $20. Thus the total loss as a result of the fire was about $1,300.

Slight damage was also sustained through smoke by P. C. Fraser & Co., cap manufacturers, who are situated on the second floor of the Wrey building. It is understood that all losses are covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from an electric light wire. The roof was leaking early in the day, and it is thought the water reached the wires, causing them to set fire to the floor of the stock room, which is also the ceiling of the cellar.

FLORIDA.

Last Personally-Conducted Tour via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The last Jacksonville tour of the season via the Pennsylvania Railroad leaves New York, Philadelphia and Washington by special train March 1. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth), and meals en route while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: New York, $50.00; Buffalo, $54.25; Rochester, $54.00; Elmira, $54.45; Erie, $54.85; Williamsport, $56.00; Wilkesbarre, $56.35; and at proportionate rates from other points. Tickets will be good for return passage on regular trains until May 31.

For tickets, itineraries and full information apply to ticket agents, or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

MEYERS LOST HEAVILY.

Berlin, Feb. 25. Fritz Meyer, a banker, says the Tagblatt, left Berlin in consequence of liabilities amounting to $500,000 incurred on account of losses due to the depreciation of Russian securities.

MISS STRATTON APPOINTED.

Kingston, Ont., Feb. 25. Miss Stratton, graduate nurse of the Kingston General Hospital, and sister of J. V. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, has been appointed supervisor of the nursing department of the deaf and dumb institute, Belleville.

Parnell's Bread

5 Cents PER LOAF.
THE PARNELL-DEAN STEAM BAKING CO., Limited.
75 and 77 Bruce Street.

A new message each day—watch for it.

THE BEST LAUNDRY.

Is none too good for you. FOREST PROCESS of laundry work adds greatly to one's appearance. It adds several months to the life of your linen. There is only one place in town to get it. Phone 1088, or postal card will bring one of our white wagons.

FOREST CITY LAUNDRY.
"The Careful Laundry," 75-74 King Street.

CHEAP HATS.

This week we offer any Hat in our entire stock, at, from 75c to $1.

This includes our spring samples, and are regular $2, $2 50 and $3 qualities. Come early and get the selection.

Spittal, Sabine & Co.
152 Dundas Street.

THE HABITANT POET DELIGHTED

A LARGE AUDIENCE LAST NIGHT

Dr. Drummond Recites a Number of His Poems at the Collegiate Institute.

Before an audience that was thoroughly appreciative last evening, Dr. Drummond, of Montreal, gave an hour and a half's entertainment in the Collegiate Institute that was decidedly unique. Dr. Drummond has himself a unique place among Canadian literateurs, and last night he gave evidence of that. He is as capable a reader as he is a writer.

Dr. Drummond recited a number of his best poems. He did not preface his reading by a long introduction. He knew what the people wanted to hear—his habitant poetry—and he began at once, on being called upon, to give one of those poems which show the simplicity of life of the habitant farmer.

The story of the old habitant farmer, packed with words of appropriate simplicity, was in the best English at his disposal. As Dr. MacCallum expressed it, in reciting a vote of thanks at the close of the poetry of Dr. Drummond is marked not only by the simplicity of theme, but by the very essence of contentment. From the farmer to the self-sacrificing character of the priest of a French-Canadian village the poet changed, giving that beautiful little poem, "The Priest and the Sea," how and why he was revered by the habitants.

Then there was the better-known poem, "Johnnie Corcoran," with its grand picture of the lumberman of the lower province, and the characteristics of the general life of the people, simply told in poetic meter, is full of human nature and full of humor. Even more humorous than the next poem, "The Clerk," which is a Canadian traveling to England. These unpublished portions of a new work by the doctor are, like the poetry, simple in theme and original in humor, as well as unique among the efforts of the best literary men of the age.

Dr. Drummond recited a number of his unpublished poems, and Mr. Warman recited some of his work, making the affair a most enjoyable one. Vocal solos were given by Mr. Gibson, and violin solo by Mr. Jex, Mr. Hewlett acting as accompanist.

"Texas" and "Billy" Made a Big Record in Toronto

"Billy Was None Less Than Steve Doyle, the Notorious."

Made Successful Break for Liberty in August Last.

"Texas" Al Made Spectacular Dash—Got Away From Bailiff English.

The Toronto police have been looking over the records in that city of "Texas" Burdell, who has been committed for trial on two charges of burglary, and his dead pal, "Billy Wilson," and they have given out some interesting information concerning the duet who had such a desperate fight with the London detectives. The World says:

Steve Doyle, burglar, convict and desperate crook, who escaped from the Toronto police in the daring break for liberty last summer, made by himself and two companions—Quackenbush and Murphy—been located. He is in his grave in London, where the bodies of the detectives of that city put him as the sequel of a dramatic battle with pistols two weeks ago, when the surviving robber, "Texas," was captured.

This is the conclusion of the persistent efforts of the provincial authorities to locate and capture the bold crook since he disappeared like a frightened rabbit on the afternoon of Aug. 18, 1902, on the banks of the Don, where he was so hotly pursued by the officers, whom he continually evaded.

When the London police shot Doyle to death and overpowered his companion, they realized that they had disposed of two dangerous men, but were unable to connect either the dead man or his comrade with Canadian criminals. The victim of the battle was buried under the name of Billy Wilson, and his companion, called him "Shorty," in warning him of the approach of the officers, they were supposed to be the thief's only allies. The captured thug was known only as "Texas," but later gave his name as Burdell. The two men were professional burglars of the most desperate type. The London officers realized from the speed with which they drew their heavy revolvers and fought when interrupted. Even when shot to death "Shorty" still gripped his two big pistols as he ready to continue the fight.

Engagement Rings.

A large assortment to select from, set with all kinds of stones. Our $10 Ring is excellent value. Let us show you what we have.

WILLMOT,
217½ Dundas St.

CRUSADE BEGUN

First of a Series of Meetings Held by W. C. T. U.

The first of a series of temperance crusade meetings was held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. in Somerset Hall yesterday afternoon. The meeting was well attended, a large number of the city ministers being present. The topic for the afternoon was "The Liquor Traffic in Ontario." The prayer meeting was led by Mrs. (Rev.) Boyd. Rev. D. S. Hamilton giving the Bible reading, Mrs. Brown delighted those present with a solo. Rev. C. T. Scott took up the topic, and spoke on many different phases of the liquor traffic, but more especially on the political aspect of the question. Mr. Scott, in the course of his address, said they were once in doubt as to the legality of a provincial prohibitory law, but now that that doubt no longer oppressed them they must work until they got all they had worked for. They were always blaming the Government, and in some ways correctly, but there was something wrong with the individual voter, or why did he support by his ballot a man whom he knew was not favorable to the cause? Mr. Scott went on to say that from things he had heard, and little hints the papers had given, he is of the opinion that we are much nearer a greater danger than that of the liquor law, which is bad enough, but the dispensary system would be a dire calamity. The system would be the creation of a great monopoly, and the greater the monopoly the worse the Government. Rev. Mr. Bishop gave a ten-minute address, in which he said he was sorry to see so many clubs springing up, because club rooms meant drinking and gambling. Miss Miller, of New Zealand, spoke for a few minutes, and then Mr. Chris, Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Wellington Street Methodist Church, Rev. Mr. Scott, of General others also took part in the meeting.

Each of these men has been noted for the ease with which he appeared to be able to escape in spite of the vigilance of officers and the use of handcuffs. In June, 1902, McCrimmon made a spectacular escape at the Queen's Wharf that branded him as a desperate crook. He was being brought to Toronto from St. Catharines with five other prisoners by Bailiff English. All were handcuffed together. On landing from the boat McCrimmon suddenly dashed down the street, and before the officer could be seized by a fine saw which the thief carried. Both "Shorty" and "Texas" were found by London officials to have fine steel burglars' saws secreted in the lining of their coats when examined after the recent fight. Each carried two large revolvers, and were supplied with an abundance of ammunition. Only the courage of the officers and the accuracy of their aim saved them from being murdered by the robbers.

The identification of "Shorty" Wilson as Doyle accounts for all three of the men who were involved in the break for liberty in Toronto, Aug. 18 last. Quackenbush and Murphy are behind the bars, and Doyle occupies a grave in the London cemetery.

Both McCrimmon and Doyle have been sentenced from five to six times each in the Central Prison, illustrating the career of the average professional criminal under the present system. Since boyhood both of these men have spent most of their time behind the bars. They were recognized as dangerous rascals, and every time they were captured it was at the risk of the lives of the officers confronting them. All efforts at reformation in the Central were long since recognized as futile. In prison they were ever on the alert to escape, and at liberty they were always dodging the police, and were recognized as ex-convicts of the worst type.

McCrimmon has maintained the most aggravating silence since the officers landed him at the revolver's point. Toronto, Buffalo, Detroit and other cities have been searched in an effort to identify the two men.

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his youth up have been of the criminal order."

Inspector Stark, of the Toronto detective office, is at all sure that "Shorty" Wilson, who was shot by the London police, was the Toronto burglar, Stephen Doyle. Photographs, measurements and other means of identification have been forwarded to London by the Toronto office. "Doyle was something of a victim of environment," said Inspector Stark. "His surroundings from his