BRITISH COLUMBIA SAUCE A dainty dessert named for the Western Province and thoroughly enjoyed throughout the Dominion.

One package Jelly Powder; dissolve in one pint of boiling water, then add a teaspoon of baking soda; take the yolks of three eggs and beat until light, then beat with half pint of cream. Then when the dissolved Jelly Powder is beginning to set stir all together, and keep in cool place until wanted.

Pure Gold-Pure Foods No Adulteration. Ask your grocer.

"All right, we are very brave, we are. Bob?" not to say cheeky," remarked Bob, in-credulously, not to be taken in by any not to say cheeky," remarked Bob, incredulously, not to be taken in by any affectation of bravado. "There, go on and get it over, and let's have dinner in peace, if you can manage it."

"No. What is it?" he asks.

"Why, the Palmers' picnic!" retorts playing the game on this side are themselves Canadians.

Amateur restrictions have had a tendency to keep down the game across the border, but since the organization of your having forgotten it."

far above the others as to be particularly noticeable. In the matter of playing the scientific points of the game, so many players know all the intricate details of trick playing that this does not come in for the comment of the Federal League, of comparative-like the best men playing the game on this side are themselves Canadians.

Amateur restrictions have had a tendency to keep down the game across the border, but since the organization of the Federal League, of comparative-like this does not come in for the comment of the Federal League, of comparative-like the best men playing the game on this side are themselves Canadians.

Amateur restrictions have had a tendency to keep down the game across the border, but since the organization of the Federal League, of comparative-like the best men playing the scientific points of the best men playing the scientific points of the day with a run on the road. In the best men playing the game on this side are themselves Canadians.

Amateur restrictions have had a tendency to keep down the game across the border, but since the organization of the Federal League, of comparative-like the best men playing the scientific points of the best men playing the scientific points. "Oh, nonsense," says Paula again, of your having forgotten it." at a little more faintly, as a soft "Well, I had," he admits. "P'raps but a little more faintly, as a soft voice, with a remarkably clear tone, shan't go. called out:
"Pauline!"

"Pauline!" decisively; "ine party wouldn't be completely. What would May say?" lor door, but starting a little as her Bob growls; and Paula, knowing eyes met Alice's blue ones, smiling full well that a blush has mounted to with sweet leniency instead of glist- his face, laughs. She is on the other ening with cold anger and contempt. STORY-GAL TWO. 2 2 2 side of the locked door, and has him "My dear Paula, I think that ex- at an advantage, you see. pression would have come most fittingfrom me," is the quiet retort. not other reason, to help put us on Where have you been?" our feet when the coach turns over." replies river-fishing."

suspicious of the sweet amiability. "Fishing? And with a strange gen- party." tleman-a chance acquaintance! My dear Paula--" and she smiles.

Paula stands thunderstruck and grin, and clatters down the stairs vicsilent. What does it mean? "I could scarcely credit Bob when he It is a glorious morning, just the told me," goes on Alice; leaning back morning for a picnic; and Paula comes BALL IN THE WILDS in the easy chair, and looking over her down singing at the top of her voice, novel with half-closed eyes. "Really, and the whole house seems to wake at you ought to be more careful, dear! her presence. Don. the big dog, comes As to Bob, his carelessness is simply bounding on to the veranda to meet I was awfully annoyed her; the pigeons coo and flutter about with him. It is astonishing to me how her feet; Tab, the gray cat, rubs ignorant of the commonest of the the pond at he back sets up a goodconvenances. It was all Bob's fault-" morning quack. 'No, it wasn't," says Paula, going delicate face with a little puzzled Paula?" she asks, sinking into one of berth, is secretary of the Honolulu formerly. Who benefits by the series?

amused contempt, curves the perfect get as brown as a berry, and increase inning takes his place with the balls of the teams is a sure loser. "I ought to be very angry, I know," she says, "but I'm sure you didn't mean

"Wrong!" and up rushes the warm sion. Foolish, if you like it better. It for admiration. No, there is nothing the was girlish, of course. Quite the most matter, Alice; only I feel most absurdgirlish thing to do, but never mind; I ly happy and jolly."

suppose Sir Herrick is a gentleman, and understood-Paula laughs, amused at the descending supposition as to Sir Her- thought of the picnic? rick's claim to gentility. "Yes, I thin't he is a gentleman," she says, sarcastically, Alice looks at her curiously, still "Well, tell me all about him. It was how he came to call-can you?" Paula turns away, smitten with sudden sense of guilt. "And was he nice and agreeable?" "Yes," shortly.

"Really nice?" "One would think he was a sponge

Usually this would have provoked a withering recort from the delicately- wear?" curved lips, but it is met with a smiling: know what I mean. Was he attentive? robe.

What did he talk about?" Paula laughs right out. me help him over the stiles, or hold Palmers have seen all my dresses so What did he talk about? The weather, fond of them. I shouldn't like to England? What absurd questions you a shock."

Paula. Never mind; I don't want to what to wear myself.' bother you. But he really is Sir Herrick Powis?'

Alice laughs-actually laughs. 'Well, you have had quite an ad-I hope you have enjoyed it, smile. Is he going to stay here?" until he goes. He is staying at the altered, perhaps I'd better wear it my-

Alice nods thoughtfully. 'Bob must call," she says. "Yes, with a tall hat and a card me. he need. Sir Herrick is not that kind isfactorily, they go into breakfast, and of man; he is not a bit like Stancy de soon afterward Alice goes up again to Palmer." she adds, innocently. hard and angry; but it is only for a ery, and I congratulate you. It is least, a word or two, and sundry other quite a boon to have a strange man animals for whom day would not seem in this awfully dead-and-alive place." day if they did not get some notice "Quite," assents Paula. "Perhaps if from their young mistress. we built a museum he'd consent to So it happens that it wants but a occupy a glass case."

Alice laughs again, with the sweetest upstairs to dress. toleration. "You had better go and get dressed." she savs. "You look as if you had been pulled through a hedge backward, Paula laughs and opens the door then looks over her shoulder as she "We met the Palmers and went un to the Court. Alice. They have asked us to a picnic tomorrow. Twelve o'clock. Stancy de Palmer is going to drive the four-in-hand." "Really! How nice!" responds the "Well, I'll see. I don't know whether I shall go; but you will,

Paula holds the door for a moment, transfixed with astonishment reply, which she had expected to have shall go, but I don't know whether you includes specimens of nearly every kind And then goes out with a laugh of amused bewiderment.

you know. Who can tell?-perhaps my smiles with superior wisdom. "You look it, my dear Paula," she says, quietly. "I suppose it is the stand in that glare."

oor.
"Hallo! all over? What "I don't know," she says. "There has

"Then she vented it all off on you," says Paula. "Never mind, Bob, I for give you!"

"Not nasty at all?" he says, won

Bob whistles, then bursts lady; she means mischief."

"Stancy de Palmer's atorious.

ing like an angel!"

puzzled laugh.

passing her door.

ment. "What is it?"

"Not in the least," answers Paula

CHAPTER IX.

"What sort of a morning it is. Bob?"

"Perhaps it is," says Paula, carelessly. "Get down, Don. Of course you will go, Alice." "I don't know," says Alice, leaning back. "I haven't got anything to go in," and she smooths the kilting of so strange his coming. I can't think her gown with a plaintive, long-suffer-Paula stares at her, then breaks in to a laugh. "And your wardrobe stuffed full she says, incredulously. "But they-the Palmers, I mean have seen them all," says Alice.

"That's bad, certainly," admits Paula, cake or piece of toffee," she says, im- with a smile. "Couldn't you chop up "What do you mean by two and mix them together?" "Don't be absurd. By the way." languidly, "what do you intend to Nearly Nine Hundred Clubs in Promoters Suggest That Ryan,

Paula stares. Languid as is the tone, it is the first time her sister has "How silly you are, Paula, You shown any interest in Paula's ward-"Oh, I." she says-"I shall wear one of my morning frocks. Anything will 'Attentive? Oh, yes. He didn't let do for me. What does is matter? The or light his cigarettes! often that they must have got quite What else does any one talk about in a new one, in case it should give them "I'll lend you my pink, if you like," "Well, don't be angry, my dear says Alice; "but then I shouldn't know

"Wear the pink," said Paula, smiling, "and if any one admires it in my "I suppose so. I didn't ask to see hearing I can say that you offered it his certificate of birth!" with a smile. to me, and so you will not only look pretty, but appear generous." Alice looks up at her with a cold

"You are a strange girl, Paula; but "I don't know. I suppose he will as my pink dress would have to be "Just so," says Paula, cheerfully.

"As I said before, anything will do for laughs Paula, "I don't think | Having settled the matter thus satdon the pale pink and "rest," while For the first time the blue eyes grow Paula bustles about the house in the execution of her duties and not only in the house, but outside also. For "A rough d'amond, I suppose," she there is the celt waiting for his crust "Well, he is your discov- of bread, the puppies impatient for, at quarter to twelve when Paula rushes

Orange Meat Save Your Coupons

[To be Continued.]

The quarto of Shakespeare's "Henrie the Fourth," sold for $5,175 at Sotheby's in London, on Shakespeare's birthday, is now the property of Dodd. uia noids the door for a moment, sfixed with astonishment at the which she had expected to have totally different, to have been. "I go, but I don't know whether you in existence. The collection is consid-

Doctors call it "anemia." They recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. They know why it cures.

been no scene at all. Alice is like butter! Quite too awfully amiable." "She wasn't before you came in," he retorts, "Made herself beastly disagreeable, I can tell you,"

Olden Days-No Kellys or Ansons, However.

"Never more amiable. I left her smil-"I notice that Ted Sullivan makes the assertion that baseball players of "You did! Then look out, young Ansons or others of the old school "Awake and call me early, brother," remarks Miller Huggins, the Cincin-says Paula, the next morning, as Bob's livan is right. In the old days the men firm, not to say heavy step, is heard "Hallo!" he shouts, pausing a moat her bath.
"Oh, fine!" he says. "Capital morn-"Oh, that's nonsense," says Paula, pulled off. Where there was one star player fifteen years ago there are fif- on with favor. those of fifteen years ago as there is "Of course you must go, Bob. If for are getting more plentiful every year, "Quite so, dear child; and therefore players in America to supply the two clubs decide not to break home ties the we shall want one wise man in the "You forget your swell friend, Sir supply of players there will be even

RUN BY NATIONAL RULES

Both the Honolulu Baseball League and the South African League at games for the championship of the a man can live in the world and be so against her skirts; and every duck in Johannesburg accept the National world after the season is over gets League rulings as official and have the following wallop from Tim Murvirtually made Harry Pulliam the ad- nane, of Boston: "What a fearful noise!" exclaims visory chief of those far-distant baseyou serve me the same? I don't un-derstand," and turns to look at the than usual the matter this morning, who, in addition to that exalted legal such a sticker for the series as I was formerly. Who benefits by the series? the wicker chairs on the terrace, and League. The blue eyes close for a moment, carefully shading her delicate complex- know whether a man who is at bat and get nearly all the gate receipts and a smile that is very nearly one of ion from the sun. "My dear, you will when his side is disposed of at the next and the managers sweat blood. One the number of your freckles, if you and strikes already called against him, fighting all year for a trophy that is or whether he begins again without priceless, the glory of a whole sea-"No matter" says Paula. "Perhaps freckles will come into fashion; high shoulders and pearness of sight have shoulders and nearness of sight have, is a closed affair, and the attorney-players' pockets. It doesn't hurt the general replied: "Being so far from the team that is licked. many deformities will become points center of Balldom we feel at times a salaries whether school keeps or the little out of touch with the laws of the pennant flies or not, but the manager American national game, and it is of the loser-he stakes his all and to count them, and appealed to Presi- the series between the teams would dent Pulliam for a ruling, and, of draw quite as well as the games did course, he was sustained.

GOLF IS GROWING IN EVERY COUNTRY

England Alone—United States Second.

land there are 134, and in Wales 43. Canada possesses the same number as the principality, in India there are 37. in Australia 35, in New Zealand 34, and lay claim to. in South Africa 26. At different places on the continent there are 69, and there is every indication that before fever badly. In China there are four bout and then have McCoy and Fitzwhich, though mainly for Britishers to the middleweight championship. has Japanese members.

present in existence may be set down middleweights put up a sensational exroughly at 3,000. The average mem-hibition. A longer contest would enbership of these clubs may fairly be able them to test their merit to a 600,000. Then there are undoubtedly simmons and McCoy has been talked of many thousands of unattached golfers, for a long time, and it is possible that so that the entire population of the they will take advantage of this opgolfing world cannot be very far short portunity to meet. of three-quarters of a million. What periodical purchases of clubs and balls, CRIGER SAYS IT PAYS with subscriptions, extra green fees, t is in the highest degree unlikely that these golfers spend less than $50 a year each on the game they love s well, so that on this estimate, which can err only in moderation, a sum of $37,500,000 is spent in every twelve in baseball, and that a well-trained months by the people who play golf.

TURF. DUFFERIN PARK RACES. Toronto, Aug. 23.—Following are the results of the trotting races held at Dufferin

First race, 2:50 pace, purse $200; ten entries: on Brook, blk, h., Briggs & Time—2:27¼, 2:24½, 2:21¾.

FROM THIS SIDE

tawa and Montreal in Big

Hancock, Mich., Aug. 23. - The protoday have no individuality—that there are no Mike Kellys, Ewings, McPhees, the leading American cities which among the men of the present day," port professional teams, particularly 75 per cent of the gross receipts to the he mentions were kings in baseball for ed to include aggregations represent-the reason that their work stood out ing Canadian cities. Negotiations he mentions were kings in baseball for the reason that their work stood out boldly compared to that of the general with Montreal and Ottawa have been run of players. They were continually lieve they will be successful.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—Mulifor last made his last public appearance until he faces Jeffries next Friday night. He had the gloves on today for several forms of the property of th she asks; and he can hear her dashing inventing something new in baseball lieve they will be successful.

Canada is the home of hockey and eral fast rounds, and was put through the path.

Canada is the home of hockey and a course of signal work by McCov. at her bath.

"Oh, fine!" he says. "Capital morning. I think I shall get some of the grass down.

"What!" shrieks Paula, indignant and dismayed. "Have you forgotten, Bob?"

"No. What is it?" he asks.

"Why, the Palmers' pienic!" retorts for the reason that the game still was in a comparatively crude state, and so they attracted attention and had individuality. The players of today lack individuality for the reason that there are son that the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the best men playing the game on this side of in private by McCoy. Jeffries inclined toward the anti-breakfast cult the best men playing the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the best men playing the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the best men playing the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the best men playing the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the best men playing the game on this side of the border is now every bit as fast and that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the American sevens are at least capable of holding their own, a condition largely due to the fact that the American sev > that it formerly aroused for the reason that the public expects it, and is surprised only when brilliant plays are not it is believed the idea of forming an Torman international association will be looked teen today, so that it is natural that The plan now is to take in Duluth, teams met today in a friendly match between an all-star dramatic cast and ing to entirely break away from the Elmsley. company with a lone star traveling present amateur restrictions a meeting LACROSSE. at the head of it. Good ball players of the various managers will be held either in Detroit or Chicago in Septemand before another decade rolls around ber, when the league probably will Herrick, is going," retorts Bob, with a less individuality among the members difficulty in launching, all of the vari-

WORLD'S SERIES OF NO VALUE, SAYS MURNANE

The fever for playing post-season

They get their through courtesies such as yours that fails. From a player's point of view Clapp, secretary of the league, refused to give Pittsburg another chance and ance, 8,208

a year ago." WANT SERIES TO DECIDE LEADER

Fitz, McCoy and O'Brien Fight in Carnival.

According to a British statistician, the increase in the number of golfers successful in carrying out their prowithstanding the commonly-recognized est middleweights that the world has Batteries—Hesterfer, Pardee and Shea steeplechase during the meeting, probfascinations of the game. The latest ever produced will come together. It Umpire, Egan. census of golf clubs shows that there is proposed to pull the carnival off this alone. The United States comes sec- simmons, Kid McCoy, Tommy Ryan gated to third place with 682. In Ire- to take part. This quartet would settle once and for all the question of middleweight champion, which all four very long France will get the golfing O'Brien meet Ryan in a twenty-round ish the season in Milwaukee. clubs, and Japan evinces one more simmons fight it out. The winner of tendency towards Europeanism in that the two bouts can then come together, golf club has been established there and the winner would easily be entitled O'Brien and Ryan have already met Thus the total number of clubs at in a six-round bout, and the rival reckoned at 200 each, giving a total of greater extent. A fight between Fitz-

TO BE POPULAR PLAYER

"They say popularity doesn't count team will work just as hard with a man they don't like as with their best friend," said Lou Criger after "Still, tell me, how would Tannehill "Take a team which is working

O'BRIEN ACCEPT

September 7-Munroe's Finishing Touches.

"Jim" Corbett and Jack O'Brien yesject of organizing an association of terday afternoon accepted the offer of the leading American cities which supthe Soo, Pittsburg, Laurium and Houghton-Hancock, has been broadened to include aggregations, represent TORONTO LOST AT BUFFALO. the individuality of the stars shoul be buried. There is as much difference in the make-up of teams today and wa, and Montreal.

Laurium, Houghton-Hancock, Sault on the meadows of the Country Club. Ste. Marie, Pittsburg, Brooklyn, Ottation on the meadows of the Country Club. The Buffalo team won by a score of 6% to 1. The only goal scored by the visit-If the Canadian managers are will- ors was in the first period by Captain

.Three Button Sack for Fall 1904 Players Now Ahead of Those of Americans Hope to Have Ot- Will Meet at Philadelphia on

Buffalo, Aug. 23.—The Toronto Hunt Club and the Buffalo Country Club polo

"CAPS" PUT UNDER THE BAN. Montreal, Aug. 23.-The report of the there will easily be enough first-class come into being. Should the Dominion layers in America to supply the two clubs decide not to break home the the big leagues. And with the increasing plan will revert to the American league the governors of the union. It recom-Lacrosse Club, was sent out today to proposition, and this there will be no mends the professionalization of the ous managers heartily supporting the having played with the Tecumsehs of Toronto. A meeting will be held to act

Semi-ready Cutaway sack suit for fall is a splendid regular purpose suit. In striped worsted-plaid Scotch cheviots - striped cheviots-Scotch and West of England tweeds-these suits are quiet and dignified. Hand Tailored carefully throughout, built on a solid foundation of shrunken canvas and haircloth, moulded by the hot iron and needle they retain shape permanently. Price $12 to $25. Money back for any cause whatever.

LUNDON

146 DUNDAS STREES

We Manufacture from

Pure Soft Lead.

THE CANADA METAL CO., WILLIAM ST. TORONTO, ONT.

IN THE NATIONAL. No, it wasn't, says Paula, going to the glass and smoothing her hair. I need not have gone. It was rather hard on Bob to blame him. Why don't you serve me the same? I don't understand," and turns to look at the derstand," and turns to look at the derstand," and turns to look at the derstand, and turns to look at the look at the derstand wasn't, says Paula, going to the what a fearful noise!" exclaims visory chief of those far-distant base-ball organizations. During the past championship will have to be played if both sides are not agreeable. After the exhibition of sordid grab game that I saw in Boston last fall I'm not Ginnity and Bowerman and Warner. Batteries-Phillippi and Phelps; Mc-Ginnity and Bowerman and Warner, At Pittsburg (second game)- eccipts Batteries—Lynch and Carrisch: Taylor I Live, b. m.

After Emslie.

Batteries—Lynch and Carrisch: Taylor Tay At Boston-Batteries—Tannehill and Criger; Sud-hoff, Hynes and O'Connor and Sugden, Attendance, 2,541. Umpire, O'Loughlin.

At Philadelphia-Philadelphia000000001-3 8 we appreciate we are a part of the great Union."

In the South African League a play
In the South African League a play-

inning on account of rain, wanted the ton loses the American flag this year Batteries-White and Sullivan: Chesbro hits included in his average. G. H. that Jimmie Collins would be willing and Kleinow. Umpire, Dwyer. Attend-At Washington (first game)— Washington00000700*-7 11

Detroit000100100-2 10 At Washington (second game)-Washington 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—2 8
Detroit 0 2 0 0 2 1 0 0 0—5 11

Batteries – Jacobsen and Kittredge; Donovan and Drill, Umpires, Connolly and King. IN THE EASTERN. Batteries-Wiltse and Hearn: Adams

At Providence-- Callahan and Thomas, Umpire, Rud-Batteries -Yerkes and McAllister, derham,

Batteries-Mueller and O'Neill: Schultz ond with 769, and Scotland is now rele- and Jack O'Brien have been invited and Bird. Umpire, Kelly. Attendance, MILWAUKEE SELLS PITCHER. Pitcher Elmer Stricklett, of the Mil- Brant, 4 to 5: Katie Caffrey, even waukee American Association team, to Homestead, 8 to 1: Headmaster, 4 to According to the present plans of the the Boston American League Club, is At Detroit-Lady Free Knight, 5 to promoters it is proposed to have announced. The terms of the deal 1 and even; Weberfield, 7 to 1; Dutch were not given out. Stricklett will fin- Barbara, 2 to 1; Snare, 2 to 1; Loch

SHAMROCKS WON. The Shamrocks defeated the Peter's at Queen's Park yesterday by

BARNEY STILL AT IT. Omaha, Neb., Aug. 23.-Today Barney Oldfield twice broke the mile record for a half-mile track, first setting the figures at 1:15 2-5, and reducing that record to 1:13 3-5. The races American bicyclist, died this morning were authorized by the American Au- from injuries sustained while racing o

ELECTRIC EYE FOR ORE

Tannehill's no-hit Chicago game. tablishment beyond question of a have ever made the record he made ing in its exposition as it is apparent- Coniston Hills, and in modern times tionary in its application. with an unpopular pitcher, and, even perts and as many non-scientific or- was lost. The mine owners knew it though the boys may think they are dinary folk, who did not know a cop- was somewhere in the heart of the best, they don't do as per lode from a load of hay, climbed hills, but all their seeking failed to much as they will do for a man they precariously over the barren heights discover it. like. You noticed how Ferris and Par-with a telephone receiver in one The invention of Messrs. Daft and ent fairly tore up the ground getting hand a steel spike in the other, Williams showed to an inch where Time—2:274, 2:24½, 2:21½.

Second race, 2:20 pace and 2:16 trot, purse $300; six entries:

Nettle Wright, ch. m., W. H. Acton. Gananoque.

Pale cheeks, white lips, and languid step tell the story of thin blood, impure blood.

Time—2:274, 2:24½, 2:21½.

Second race, 2:20 pace and 2:16 trot, purse $300; six entries:

Nettle Wright, ch. m., W. H. Acton. Gananoque.

In principle as in results the inventished bload of the runners? They might that record. Would they have chased so hard for any one they discussed its way of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence and the exactest longuage the simplest could understand the story of the existence a RACES AT READVILLE. The results of yesterday's races Readville, Mass., were as follows: 2:11 trot, purse $1,500, heats, 2 in 3: Kellar, b. m. h., by Direct Lady Gail Hamilton b. m. Norman B., blk. g..... Invader, b. g....

Time-2:091/4 2:103/4 2:13 trotting, purse $1,000, heats, 2 in Kent, ch. g., by Wilkeswood....... 1 Kent, ch. g., by W Joy Maker, b. h.. Morn, ro. g...... Monroe, b. g. Hie Boy, b. g Lady K., br. Time-2:09% 2:11.

2:24 trot, purse $1,000, heats, 2 in 3: Grettan Boy, Jun., b Filipino, blk. g..... Boraselle, b.

Nicoll, br A. Penn, b. h. Time-2:09%, 2:10%. The Norfolk, 2:24 pace, purse $5,000 Star, b. g., by Star Batteries-Hughes and Clarke; Mullin Gordon Prince, b.h., by Oratorio 1 4 Baron Grattan

Winnie King, ch. m. Time-2:05½, 2:04¾, 2:06¾, 2:05¾ TRACK OFFICIALS APPOINTED. Toronto, Aug. 23.-At a meeting of the board of the Ontario Jockey Club held today the following officials were appointed for the autumn meeting, ept. 17 to 24: Judge, Alfred H. Post; assistant judge, Francis Nelson; steward, Henry O. Talmadge; starters, A. Dwyer and J. J. Holtman; clerk of scales and patrol judge, F. W. Ger-3 hardy. Mr. Dwyer will start on the opening day, Saturday, Sept. 17, and Mr. Holtman the remainder of the meeting. In answer to several enquiries it is announced that it is the intention of the directors of the On tario Jockey Club to give a hunters' ably on Friday, Sept. 23, in addition horses across country as well as or YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS. At Saratoga-Toccon, 9 to 5; Short Milwaukee, Aug. 23.-The sale of Hose, 8 to 5; Lochinvar, 2 to 1; Molly Gail, 6 to 1; Trenct the Mere, 6 to 5. At St. Louis-His Worship, 3 to Crescerton, 20 to 1; Corley's Dream, 26 to 1; Old Stone, 3 to 2; Aggie Lewis, 6 to 5: Athelrose, 10 to 1 At Howthorne-Katie Zitt, 4 to Orfeo, 11 to 10; Robin Hood, 6 to

to the hunters' flat, already anounced in the programme book, if owners of hunters will declare to start their

DID OF INJURIES.

Scheme to Locate Hidden Metal. | ordinary mining methods. frown down on Coniston Lake and strata often upset his inferences, and

Windermere there was seen the result many a rich mine has suddenly been of a remarkable challenge and the es- pauperized by the lode becoming lost in a fault. new scientific discovery, as fascinat- Romans worked copper mines in the ly destined to be valuable and revolu- more than £750,000 worth of coppe

Alma Dufour, 1 to 4; Ahola, 15 to 1 Morrish Damsel, 3 to 1. Paris, Aug. 23.—George Leander, the menting in British Columbia, Alaska, in Siberia, and in the United Kingdom, with devices for discover-Inventors Are Experimenting With a ing, by electrical means, deposits of metals that were undiscoverable Montreal, Aug. 24.—Away up on the more than he sees, though he may in rocky steeps of the barren hills that fer more. But "faults" in the earth's

This was the case at Coniston. The has been dug out of the Weatherham Half a dozen sceptical mining ex- heights. But 40 years ago the lode trode to another. Then, with a telephone receiver and a steel spike, two operators walk over the charged areas, and, sticking the spike into the earth anywhere, pick up the current, and the mysterious ticking tells what is hidden in the earth as plainly as though one saw with an X-ray eye. NORTH PERTH PARTICULARS

One Hundred and Twenty-Five

Charges in the Petition. Toronto, Ont., Aug. 23.-In the North Perth election petition particulars there are 125 charges involving payment of money. Intimidation, opening of hotels on election day, distribution of liquor by agents and other corrupt charges The names of Hon. J. R. Stratton and James Vance, Liberal organizer, are coupled with those of the candidate, John Brown, and an attempt will b made to prove that a large campaign fund was distributed by the gentlemen at the Grand Central Hotel, Listowel.

Apple Parers Apple Drying Wire Stitched Canyas Belting South Bend Plows All Kinds Plow Repairs

Westman 121 Dundas St. 7 Market Square.

0000000000000000000000000000 "The Maple Leaf Forever."

Cowan's Perfection Cocoa

is absolutely pure. The Cowan Co., Limited ŏaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa tin. It is "made in Canada," and

E.W. GILLETT COMPANY TORONTO, ONT.