LIBERALS HONOR CLUB MAN WITHHANDSOME PRESENTATION

Li ut. W. Chester Butler of 7th Regiment Made Recipient of Dress Sword by Fellow Members

Liberal club members made manifest the esteem in which they held one of the organization's most active and faithful workers when they presented a dress sword to Lieut. W. Chester Butler, of the Seventh Regiment, in the officers' quarters at the Armories last night. Lieut. Butler has been an officer of the club for many years and at the present time is secretary. He has always been regarded with a feeling of respect and admiration by his fellow members, and has been tireless to advance the interests of the organization. On the occasion of his assuming a commission in the regiment, after having been for many years a non-commissioned officer, they thought the time appropriate for a material expression of their regard.

Presented by F. H. Greenlees. The presentation was made by F. H Greenlees, president of the club, who expressed the sentiments of the club, and his remarks were applauded by the strong deputation present. Major H. C. Becher, who with other officers of the regiment was present, said that Lieut. Butler had been the best non-commiswithin a short time he was expected to at one time secretary of the Liberal ioned officer the regiment ever had and Ale and Porter be the best commissioned officer. Lieut. Butler made a suitable reply, ment in the Northwest rebellion.
