TORY FLAG IN S. WELLINGTON

Admits In Address He Expects a Hard

Fight.

GUELPH, Oct. 12 .- A wide open invitation from Hon. Hugh Guthrie, min-ister of militia, and former Liberal rep-resentative for South Wellington, to the electors of the riding, brought several hundred men and women to the city hall this afternoon to hear him speak on the political situation in Canada. Nothing was said in the invitation regarding a nomination, but after hearing Mr. Guthrie's address, he was unanimously nominated as the standard-bearer of the National Lib-eral and Conservative party in South Wellington for the coming Dominion election. He will be opposed by Sam

Carter of Guelph, the Liberal nomined and James Singer of Nichol Township who is in the field as the candidate of the U. F. O.-I. L. P. combination. In accepting the nomination Mr. Guthrie stated that he expected a hard fight, and he urged all his supporters to or-
