Florence B. Alston, vendor, to H Florence B. Aiston, vendor, to H. Hockman, purchaser—Motion to confirm a sale under the settled estates act, an infant being interested. It appears that the motion involves the construction of a will, and that ther persons should be represented. If all the parties consent, sale may be made, the official guardian to sign the leed on behalf of the infant, and purchase money to be paid into court. The noome for life may be paid to the nother. Failing consent, the motion is djourned one week. The counsel representing the infant will then represent all children living at date of disbursement. Counsel for the executors will also then represent the executor in her personal capacity. Motion will also be for the construction of the will. E. W. M. Flock for vendor, F. P. Betts for official guardian, and P. H. Bartett for executor. Sarah E. McIntyre, a person alleged to be incapable of managing her own uffairs—Motion to confirm the report of the local master at London, who reads a letter from the public trustee for the public trustee having been instructed to ask for an enlargement, the notion stands for one week unless the motion stands for one week unless the Magee, Ireland, and came to this countries of the mage transfer of the standard of th Magee, Ireland, and came to this country in 1889, residing in London ever that the order may go.
