LITTLE TRICK OF SIR WILFRI

Garbled Quotation of Navy Resolution Passed by House in 1909 Is Introduced Into His Amendment

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.-This afternoon as fine a bull as ever was bred out of Ireland walked across the floor of the house of commons. He appeared in the course of the maiden speech of Mr. Webster, who conquered Hon. George Graham. "Canada for Canadians," Mr. Webster declared to an electrified house, "would be the grandest battle cry ever unfurled."

More serious was Mr. Northrup's exposure of a piece of trickery in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's amendment. leader of the opposition in that amendment gives what purports to be a quotation from the famous resolution of March 29, 1909, in the follow ing terms: "The house will cordially approve of any necessary expenditure designed to promote the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service." Dut the sentence was really as follows "The house will cordially approve of any necessary expenditure designed to promote the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service in co-operation with and in close relation to the imperial navy, along the lines suggested by the admiralty at the last imperial conference, and in full sympathy with the view that the naval supremacy of Britain is essentia to the security of commerce, the safety of the empire and the peace of the world.'

Today Mr. German, of Welland marched back to the Liberal camp, and did so with rude gestures at the men who took so much trouble to get him his acclamation.

The opening speech of the sitting was made by Mr. Rainville, of Chambly-Vercheres, who spoke in French. Mr. Northrup followed, and pointed out the discrepancy between Sir Wilfrid Laurier's amendment and the facts as already noted. Mr. German Returns

Then Mr. German was publicly reconciled to his party by which he was gratefully acclaimed. He alluded to the peculiarities of his position, and acknowledged the manner in which the Conservatives had taken pains to procure his election, but he had not gone over to the Conservative party. He had always been a Liberal, and he intended to remain Liberal. He already had as many bad habits as he could afford without adding to the number by joining the Conservatives. He turned to make a savage attack upon Hon. Mr. White. He was not absolutely certain that Mr. White's acceptance of the finance portfolio had been altogether a free action on his part. Some matters relating to his change had not been placed before the people by Flavelle, Mackenzie, Walker, Lash and others of the noble eighteen. These gentlemen had produced currency to carry on the election, and had dictated to Mr. Borden They would not stand for that old gentleman, Mr. Foster, and Mr. Borden had to obey. Then Mr. German said that he had not opposed reciprocity on sentimental grounds. He had not thought it would cause disloyalty. He had opposed it on economic grounds alone. His one economic argument was the conviction that the erican tariff without requiring a disturbance of the Canadian fiscal system. Reciprocity was defeated at the polls by a large majority, Mr. German continued, and whether it ever would be brought up again was a problem. If the Conservatives stayed in power long enough they might bring the country to so low a pass that it would cry for reciprocity, as it had in 1891, He admitted the Liberals in 1896 had taken over the national policy. He concluded with an attack on Ministers Monk and Nantel.

Messrs. Turgeon, Weichel and Buchanan followed and the house adjourned at 10:45 o'clock.

Official announcement is made of the personnel of the new Canadian section of the international waterways commission. As already announced, they are: T. Chase Casgrain, K. C., Montreal, C. A. Magrath, Lethbridge, and H. A. Howell, K. C., of St. John. Mr. Casgrain is one of the most eminent jurists of Quebec, and a man of high character and attainments. Mr. Magrath during a period of service in the house made a deep impression alike on the house and the country as original outlook and much strength of character. Mr. Howell has a high standing at the bar of New Brunswick and a wide knowledge of the industrial life of his province. His appointment is in line with the choice of Mr. Leonard as chairman of the transcontinental commission.

J. B. Jackson Recalled

The department of trade and commerce has recalled J. B. Jackson, trade commissioner at Leeds, England. protege of Sir Richard Cartwright who figured in the South Oxford election trial in the dying days of the Liberal government of Ontario. In an effort to unseat Donald Sutherland, then M. P. P., and now M. P., Jackson offered money to induce people to commit perjury, his conduct being severely condemned by Judge Street. He was rewarded with a position worth $3,000 a year. Sir Richard Cartwright's last act in the house of commons was his singularly cynical

IN APPEAL COURT

Case of Taylor vs. B. C. Electric Bailway Again Heard—Plaintiff In-jured in Lakeview Accident

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 27-The second appeal in the case of Taylor vs. the B. C. Electric Rallway company was heard by the court of appeal yesterday and judgment was reserved, Mr. Taylor, an elderly blacksmith was one of the victims of the Lakeview accident. His injuries resulted in thro matic neurasthenia, and his condition as he appeared in court in his suits against the company, was pitiable, as he shook and cried nearly the whole of At the first trial he was awarded $15,000 damages, but this was reverse by the court of appeals on the ground that it was excessive. At the second trial the condition of Mr. Taylor was worse than at the first, and the jury added to his compensation by awarding him $7,500. Against this an appeal is again being made. The Dardanelles

ROME. Nov. 27 .- The reported passing or blockading of the Dardanelles by an Italian squadron is officially denied, at least for the moment. The report, it is believed here, was circulated from Constantinople, and purposely emphasized by Turkey in order to arouse the susceptibilities of Russia which will sustain the heaviest losses if her commerce is deprived of the right of passage through the Dardanelles. It is officially stated that Italy does not contemplate any such action now, but that othing prevents her from adopting such measure in the future, if she deems it necessary. Cholera in Italy CHIASSO, Switzerland, Nov. 27 .- The official bulletin issued by the Italian government reports 94 cases of cholera
