IT PAID HIM TO ADVERTISE

One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—and he put an ad. for one. He hung a shirt on a pole, at the top of his island, and that, in the language of the sea, was plain to every sea-faring man.

The circulation was small—there was no other medium, but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no inquiries for a long time. He changed his copy—as one garment after another was frayed out—and in the end got what he wanted.

Suppose Crusoe had taken down that signal after a time and declared—"Advertising doesn't pay," where would he and his story be now?

Put up your signal and keep it there. Crusoe advertised under very discouraging circumstances. You've got a sure thing—it is only necessary to have the patience, persistence and pluck of Robinson Crusoe—and the good ship "Better Business" will soon tie up alongside your pier. USE THE GRAPHIC.

GASPE GIRL WINS THE FIRST PRIZE

Cora Crozman of Little Pabos
Comes Out First Among Many Competitors

The friends of Miss Cora Crozman, of Little Pabos, Gaspe County, will be glad to learn that she was successful in capturing First Prize in the recent Essay Competition conducted by the Chronicle-Telegraph, Quebec. A great number of essays were submitted in the contest and many of them were of an exceptionally high order according to Quebec paper's announcement, so Miss Crozman's success in winning against such worthy competitors, is all the more enviable. The Chronicle-Telegraph says of her effort:

"In the senior division, Cora Crozman wrote a very original tale entitled 'Daddy' which was delightful. There were one or two words wrongly spelled but this entry was exceptionally good' showed great promise both in the idea of the story and in the way it was put together."
