and that 50,000 head of cattle on their way to Wyoming were yesterday turned back at the Arkansas River. Col. Simpson, who was reported as having agents at the alleged cattle growers' meeting at Denver, says his company was not represented there and that all the cattle he had sent over the trail this summer are now in Wyoming. He says it is probably true that there is little demand for Texas cattle in Wyoming, but that this will not cause heavy loss or probable failures. Maj. Hillard thought the report was intended to alarm Texas cattle in Wyoming, but there was plenty of grass in Indian Territory and no necessity to turn the herds back. From other quarters it was generally recognized that the old days of the trail is over and the only salvation is to establish packing houses in Texas.

ROBBERY AT PORT HURON.

The Commercial Bank Rebbed at Neon While the Clerks are Absent.

PORT HURON, July 23.—A daring midday bank robbery just leaked out to-day. Yesterday noon the clerks at the Commercial Bank closed up for dinner as usual, taking the money drawer into the vault, leaving the same on the cash safe and locking the vault only by the day lock. The bank windows were left open with the inside blinds closed. On the return of the clerks it was found that some daring burglar had entered the back window, opened the vault and carried off all the currency in the cash drawer. Chief of Police Carson was called and placed the matter in the hands of Detective Buckeridge, who is busily engaged on a scent. A meeting of the directors was held this morning, the subject thoroughly canvassed and business goes on as though nothing had happened. The amount of the haul has not been disclosed, but it is supposed to be over $1000. The matter has been kept very quiet.
