Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Slowly the web is being woven which will bring the stolid, secretive H. H. Holmes, now sitting in his lonely cell in Moyamensing Jail, before the bar of justice, where he will have to face the charge of murder, whether in Philadelphia, to hillian P. This ingenious explanation is worthy of Holmes. Lawyer Shoemaker now declares that positive proof can easily be obtained to show that Holmes could not have committed the murders himself.

Mrs. Howard, Holmes' third wife, was with him at the time, and that there was ever any intention of asking Rome to influence the Privy Council, and that this was to be done through Cardinal Vaughan. Cardinal Ledochowski, at the time of my visit to Rome, asked me what the Vatican could do in the matter, and suggested that it should call the attention of the sking Rome to influence the Privy Council, and that this was to be done through Cardinal Vaughan.
