G.W.V.A. CONCERT GREAT SUCCESS

Pleasing and Varied Programme Delights Large Audience Monday Evening

The concert given in the Court House on Monday night under the auspices of the local Branch of the G W V.A. was a decided success though it is to be regretted that the attendance was not somewhat larger. The programme was well selected and sufficiently varied to please all

The opening number by the Bridgetown orchestra, a March, entitled "The Booster Club" was nicely rendered, the members of the orchestra present being: Mr. C. B. Longmire (Cornet). Mrs. C. B. Longmire (Piano), Mr. Ross Bishop (Violin), Mr. Herman Young (Baritone).

This was followed by an amusing character duett. "I ain't Nobody's Darling". Miss D. Weare and Mr Max Young. The parties dressed and assumed the role of the opposite sex in a mirth provoking manner.

The next selection was an amusing reading, by Miss H. Anderson, "Mr. Brown Gets His Hair Cut". After comments on this unusual occurrance aroused the gentlemen's dander. Miss Anderson personated in a very pleasing manner.

Dr. N. R. Warey, accompanied by Miss H. Griffin, gave two splendid monologues in a manner very pleasing to the audience, "Green Eye of he Little Yellow God" and "Pig-Tail dered sweetly "The song of Sleep"

FAMOUS FIVE-PIECE ORCHESTRA FROM BOSTON

There is a great treat waiting for the dancers of Bridgetown on Monday, April 24th, when the Famous orchestra from Boston, the "Five Melody Men", will put on their big informal dance. This is an opportunity which does not present itself very often, and all those fond of dancing should take advantage of this great chance to hear the best orchestra in the Maritime Provinces and enjoy a wonderful dance.

This orchestra is on a tour of the Maritime Provinces and if they receive a real welcome here, manager Fielding states that they will stop off on their trip back for another en-
