Acres of the Church.

LABRADOR.—The attention of the Synod having been called to the spiritual destitution of those engaged in the fisheries on the Labrador coast, the Home Mission Board was authorized to send a Missionary to that coast with as little delay as possible. The Board met at Pictou, and secured the services of Mr. Edward McCurdy for this important field. Mr. McCurdy set out immediately for the Labrador coast by way of Newfoundland. We trust that his labours in this desolate and long-neglected region will be abundantly blessed of Heaven.

CAPE BRETON.—The Synodical Denntation to Cape Breton are now engaged in their onerous but delightful task of visiting the congregations of this island. The Presbyterians of Cape Breton with very few exceptions, look to our church for a supply of the means of grace. Hitherto the supply given has been but scanty. This is owing in a large measure to the fact that the people have not sufficiently appreciated the necessity of contributing liberally to the support of the ministry. When so many fields port of the ministry. When so many fields are invitingly open men have a right to choose those in which they will be fairly provided for. We trust that Cape Breton, which is so rapidly becoming wealthy, will soon be an example of liberality to the whole Synod. Several of its congregations have long done their duty nobly; and we trust that before many years clapse we may truthfully make the same assertion concerning Foreign Mission.—The Dayspring was expected to leave Sydney for the New Hebrides about the 15th May. At Sydneya house was to be built on her fore deck.—Up to our latest dates the Missionaries were all well. It may reasonably be concluded that Anciteum was reached a month ago, perhaps still earlier.

It is hoped that Mr. GEDDIE may be among us very shortly. He has prolonged his sea-voyage as much as practicable for the benefit of his own and Mrs. Geddie's health. Several letters from him will appear in our next.

BERMUDA.—Mr. William Stuart, who was sent to Bermuda about a year ago to assist Rev. W. Thorburn, is about returning. Mr. William Sinclair is to succeed Mr. Stuart.

THE HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD.

THE HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD is under the control of a Committee of Synds, and is published at Halifax by Mr. James Barmes.
