"THE HIDDEN LIFE."

THE REV. W. M. TUFTS, M.A., B.D., HAWKESBURY, ONT.

"Your life is hid with Christ in God." Col. iii., 13.

EVERY life is a hidden thing. It is hidden from the world, for no man can tell all that he thinks and is. And yet it is the unknown part of one's life, the secret sin or the hidden heartache, which makes or mars a character. Daily we judge men in ignorance and do them and ourselves both injustice and injury.

It is still more remarkable that our life is hidden from ourselves. The stoutest hearts learn to weep. The stiffest necks bend to the yoke. Once we thought we could not love. Once we marvelled at people losing interest
