

PARAGRAPHIC.

THE FAR REACHING

Perfume of a good name heralds the claim that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure, certain, and painless remedy for corns. Fifty imitations prove it to be the best. At druggists.

If a man is faithful to truth, truth will be faithful to him. He need have no fears. His success is a question of time.

Rheumatism is the most painful and most troublesome disease that afflicts humanity. It comes when we least expect it and when we have no time to be interviewed by it. The only reliable remedy that we ever found is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

A charitable disposition expects only opportunity, not importunity, to do good, and will succor upon sight unsought unto.

Horsford's Acid Phosphates.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "HORSFORD'S" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

In a railway carriage—An old soldier, noticing that his pipe troubled a lady, said to her, "They don't smoke in your regiment, ma'am?" "In my regiment it is possible," replied the lady, "but in my company, never."

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, Is prepared in a perfectly agreeable form, at the same time increasing the remedial potency of both of these specifics. It is acknowledged by leading physicians to be marvellous in its curative powers in Consumption, Scrofula, Chronic Coughs and Wasting Diseases. Take no other.

The Duc de Morny's definition of a polite man is hard to realize. "A polite man," said he, "is one who listens with interest to things he knows all about, when they are told by a person who knows nothing about them."

"I have seen the time in the past four months that I would gladly have given a guinea for one bottle of that same Minard's Liniment.—T. H. Hale, Blackheath, London.

Nearly all diseases that afflict humanity originate in the stomach, liver or bowels, and might be prevented if people would use a little common sense; but they will not. They rather take Parson's Purgative Pills, because one is a dose.

There is an old proverb that says the lightning never strikes in the same place. Probably for the reason that the place is not there when it strikes the second time.

The darkest hour is when you can't find the matches.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician having had placed in his hands by a returned Medical Missionary, the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc., after having tested its wonderful curative powers in hundreds of cases, desires to make it known to such as may need it. The Recipe will be sent FREE with full directions for preparing and using. Send 2 cent stamp. Address Dr. W. H. Armstrong, 44 North 4th st., Philadelphia, Pa. (Name this paper.)

The pleasantest way to take cod-liver oil is to fatten pigeons with it, and then eat the pigeons.

Stop that cough by using Minard's Honey Balsam. Nothing better can be used.

We hear a good deal said about the quickness of Irish wit, but after all, is it at all strange that an Irishman would say Pat things?

"Adam the godliest man of men since born," still could not be called exactly enviable, for when he tilled the ground in the dewy twilight and caught a sharp touch of rheumatism, he had no Salvation Oil for his cure, and no twenty-five cents to try it.

GIVE your Laundress PYLE'S PEARLINE and she will not ruin your clothes with soda, lime, &c., which many of them use to facilitate the washing.
