SUFFERED FOR TWENTY YEARS FROM HEART TROUBLES-HIS DOCTOR SAID HE MIGHT

DROP DEAD AT ANY MOMENT-TELLS HOW HE OVERCAME THE TROUBLE.

From the Ingersoll Chronicle.

That a sound mind in a sound body is one of the best and greatest gifts of a kind Providence no one will deny. Mankind in all ages have sought to obtain the elixir of life, have hunted for some the elixir of life, have numer in and to lay them down here. In the means of prolonging health, vigor and to lay them down here. In the second to lay the second to lay them down here. In the second to lay the second

BARLEY.—The market for malting bar-BARLEY.—The market for malting bar-bart give the subject any consideration, that modern science, skill and education in the treatment of the ills that flesh is the treatment of the ills that flesh is heir to, have worked wonders in restoring the human body to its original 'torm divine," and in relieving many sufferers from untold misery, bringing them back to health and happiness, and giving them a feeling that life is indeed worth living. A case in point, in our own town, having reached the ears of a reporter of the Chronicle, the scribe determined to satisfy his curiosity by calling on the party who had had such a happy experience and investigate for himself. He called at the boot and shoe shop of Mr. John Toull, King street west, and entering the building the re-porter found "Father Thoull," as he is "familiarly known in town, busily at "ork on a pair of shoes for one of his many customers, at the same time hum-ming over to himself the tune of a cherished hymn for by the way, in his younger days Mr. Toull was considered a good local preacher among the Methodists of this section and frequent-Ty filled the pulpits of some of our local churches in the pastor's absence, and he still loves to sing, preach or expostulate on some scripture theme or favorite hymn. The reporter was cordially re-ceived, and on making known his business, the old man's countenance brightened and his eyes sparked with delight. It was interesting to note the fervency with which he volunteered, as he said for the sake of humanity, to tell what he could of his case, and we will let it be told in his own words. He said:-"For twenty years I was subject to heart trouble and could get no relief, although intends recommended to me. My family physician would sometimes give me some medicine that would help me for a short time, but without permanent benefit. He told me I might drop dead at any moment, and I tell you I expected to do so on many occasions. I had heard of Dr. Williams' Fink Fills when they first came out but I had used so many remedies that I just about lost faith in everything of that kind, and had become resigned to my fate. However, I came in contact with so many that had used Pink Fills, and who assured me that they had been benefitted by their use, that at last I decided to give them a trial also, and several years ago I commenced taking them, I continued their use until I had taken eight boxes, and I am now happy to say that I have never had a symptom of the disease since, and I am convinced that by the blessing of God, Pink Pills cured me. I might also say that last fall I was attacked with rheumatism, which became so bad that I could scarcely walk from my work to the house, and for a long time I could not get out to church. I tried a number of things recommended to me, but received no good from their use, so I said to myself one day, Pink Pills did me so much good before for my heart trouble, I'll try them again, so I gave them another trial, with the result that the rheumatism has all gone out of my hones, and I have not been troubled a bit with it since. Everyone, said the old man, as he waxed warm over the thought of his happy experience, who knows old Father Toull, knows that what he tells is the truth." After thanking Mr. Toull for his kindness and courtesy, the reporter loft the same the reporter left the shop with the same opinion as to the truth of his statements, and impressed with the belief that from his rugged, hearty appearance and cheer-ful disposition, the old gentleman is still good for many years of a healthful, con-

Are Wronght. La Semaine Religeuse of last week

gives an interesting account of the origin of the famous Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. It appears that during the early years of the French Regime, some sailors from Bretagne, France, were over-taken in the Lower St. Lawrence in a severe storm, and in prayer they prom-ised that on the spot where they reached the shore they would raise a sanctuary to Ste. Anne. They landed, so the story goes, at a spot now called Ste. Anne de Beaupre, and at once proceeded to make gives an interesting account of the origin France, Monsieur d'Aillebrust.
