

7. A member whose voting rights have been suspended under paragraph 6 of this Article shall not be deprived of any of its other rights or relieved of any of its obligations under this Convention, unless the Council so decides by special vote. It shall remain liable to pay its contribution and to meet any other of its financial obligations under this Convention.

8. The Council shall, each crop year, publish an audited statement of its receipts and expenditures in the previous crop year.

9. The Council shall, prior to its dissolution, provide for the settlement of its liabilities and the disposal of its records and assets.

ARTICLE 22

Economic provisions

In order to assure supplies of wheat and other grains to importing members and markets for wheat and other grains to exporting members at equitable and stable prices, the Council shall at an appropriate time examine the possibility of the negotiation of a new international agreement or convention with economic provisions. When it is judged that such a negotiation could be successfully concluded, the Council shall request the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to convene a negotiating conference.

PART III - FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 23

Depositary

1. The Secretary-General of the United Nations is hereby designated as the depositary of this Convention.

2. The depositary shall notify all signatory and acceding Governments of each signature, ratification, acceptance, approval, provisional application of, an accession to, this Convention, as well as each notification and notice received under Article 29 and 32.

ARTICLE 24

Signature

This Convention shall be open for signature at United Nations Headquarters from 1 May 1986 until and including 30 June 1986 by the Governments listed in the Annex and any Government member of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development.
