
2. INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION-ISSUES OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND

2.1 Domestic and External Factors 15

TABLE: 2.11) Factors Influencing Students' Decision to Study Abroad

3. CANADIAN EDUCATION MARKET

3.1 The "Product" 17

GRAPHS: 3.11) Investment in Education: Public Education Spending Per Capita

3.12) Perceptions of Canada and Studying in Canada

3.13) Canada's Competitive Advantage

3.2 Pricing Issues 19

GRAPHS: 3.21) Comparison of Undergraduate Tuition Fees for International Students, 1990-91

3.22) Importance of Tuition Cost and Availability of Scholarships When Choosing an International Education Program

3.3 Capacity 21

GRAPHS: 3.31) Access to Higher Education: Domestic Population Age 20-24 Enrolled in Higher Education

3.32) Canadian Education Market

3.33) Enrolment of Full-Time Students, by Field of Study at Canadian Universities, 1989

3.34) Distribution of International Students by Field of Study as a Percentage of Total Students, 1991

3.35) International Students at Top 20 Canadian Universities, 1990-91

3.36) Age Group Populations of Relevance to School Enrolment, Canada, 1961-2001

3.4 Promotion 27

TABLE: 3.41) Problems Cited by Students Applying to Study in Canada

3.5 Immigration Policies 28

TABLE: 3.51) Highlights of Canadian Student Immigration Policy