

entire rural community, and, in view of the financial crisis of western farmers, calls on the government to consider the advisability of an immediate payout to them of a minimum of $100,000,000 without conditions and in addition to other farm assistance programs.

And debate arising thereon; at 5.45 o'clock p.m., Mr. Speaker interrupted the proceedings pursuant to order made earlier this day.

And the question being put on the said motion it was negatived on the following division:
