

Montreal, ⁷ April 5, 1922.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Since the trial is ended, I have been longing to see you to express to you my deep sense of obligation for your sympathy and kindness shown to me in so many ways. Both have been precious and most important to me during that long ordeal through which I have had to pass.