

He told me it was not a question of my work, which was satisfactory, but that if Miss Kennedy wished me to go, I was to leave at once.

I feel that such an abrupt dismissal is hurtful to my professional reputation, and would respectfully ask for advice on the subject, so that I shall not be suspected of bad conduct or of some professional error.

With apologies for troubling you, I remain,

Yours respectfully

Jane Edith Sexton R.N.
Graduate, Royal Victoria
Hospital.