

ticle of sense or spirit would toil at a library, and then assist a day laborer to make a catalogue to it. It is of importance to have books in a library, but it is of far more importance to have a librarian, and if either could be dispensed with it would be the former, and the people of Nova Scotia will, we fear, in time learn that the reputation and usefulness of a library depend far more on the librarian than on the contents of the library.
